MUCH DEPENDS ON TEMPERAMENT

Dignified Persons Have the Right Time But Nervous Souls Might as Well Carry Wrist Watches

BY FREDERICK J. HASKIN

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—

At the United States bureau of standards in Washington there is a big cabinet with a glass front in which are thirty-eight watches of all shapes, sizes and grades and all vigorously ticking. The temperature in this cabinet is controlled by a thermostat which automatically shuts off an electric current when the temperature gets too high. The variation, if there be any, is recorded by a thermometer, which draws a fine red line upon a piece of paper.

Read by Telescope

In front of this cabinet there is erected a small telescope. At regular intervals a man takes his seat behind this instrument, and studies the face of each watch at a distance of about six feet. At his side is an ordinary Morse telegraph key. This is connected with a chronograph, which in turn is connected with the bureau's standard time clock. As the hands of each indicate the fifty-eight, sixtieth and second seconds, the observer taps his telegraph key, and makes a record on a chronograph of the reading of that particular watch as compared with the standard clock. The record of the watches can afterwards be read at one's leisure.

This is an official free-for all watch test conducted by the United States government. Any manufacturer of watches, any jeweler, jobber or individual watch-owner may send his watch to the bureau at the time of these periodic tests, and have it tested in three positions for $3 or in five positions for $5. It will take fifty-four days to complete the latter test. When you get your watch back, however, you will know exactly what it can do standing up and lying down, hanging by its stem, in hot weather and in cold, by day or by night. You will know to a dot how much it gains or loses and how much its rate varies in the twenty-four hours. If you are a manufacturer or jeweler, you may win a certificate which you can sell with your watch, and you may receive the bureau's reports which will help you improve your product.

Old in Europe

Government watch tests have long been regularly held in Switzerland, France and England. The chief watch observatory in the world is that at Geneva, Switzerland. These government tests have been of the greatest value to the European watch makers. They have set their standard of performance for watches of all grades, and have also caused the standardization and improvement of materials. For example, the Swiss government discovered through its watch tests that invar, an alloy of nickel and steel, is much better material for the balance wheel than any other metal. The Swiss watch makers are now using this material regularly, but the Americans have not yet taken it up. Most of them know nothing about it. Now the bureau of standards proposes to test American watches, standardize them, and furnish the manufacturer with the expert guidance which is necessary to every industry. Incidentally, it will also make a test for any individual who wants to know what kind of a watch he is getting for his money, and whether it is really well adjusted or not.

Specifically, the test consists in running the watch in five different

War Minister Says De Facto Can Handle Situation; Laughs at Report of Break with Carranza

BY E. T. CONKLE

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

EL PASO, Texas, April 28.—The withdrawal of the American expedition from Mexico will be one of the principal demands General Obregon will make in his coming conference with Chief of Staff Scott, the Carranza war minister said in a statement to the United Press in Juarez today.

Generals Obregon and Trevino arrived in Juarez today with a big escort of Carranzista troops, coming by special train.

That Villa was not dead but was in grave condition from lack of medical attention to a wounded leg was Obregon's statement.

"The Carranza government is able to cope with the situation without outside assistance," said Obregon.

Obregon laughed when asked about reports of a break with Carranza.

"The Carranza war minister established headquarters in the Juarez customs house.

"The situation in Mexico is rapidly becoming peaceful. Not a single bandit group of importance is left in the state of Chihuahua. There are a few in the state of Durango and Coahuila, but there are now negotiations under way for surrender."

"Last reports were that Villa was in the mountains in the vicinity of Guerrero. He may be headed for the Sonora border."

Obregon said he would not cross over to El Paso until Scott and Funston arrive. He will live in his private car at the Juarez railway station.

While Obregon has announced he is, guarded by the 200 soldiers he picked as his bodyguard.

The room in which Obregon established his headquarters was once the meeting place of Presidents Taft and Porfirio Diaz. One of Obregon's first acts on arriving in Juarez was to hold a conference with General Gaviro, Consul Garcia and General Ramon Irtube, Carranza envoy to Japan.

Obregon ordered a special train

WASHINGTON, April 28.—When telegraph companies began casting up totals on the peace messages that have flooded congress this week they found the figures staggering.

Today's estimate was that between 140,000 and 150,000 will be the number when all are counted. They are still coming in, though in lessening numbers.

The cost of this gigantic enterprise is now estimated at $250,000. This fact impelled Senator Husting to say he would demand senatorial investigation of the source of the funds.

In the final rush of the last two days the senders abandoned day and night letters and sent many at straight commercial rates, some messages costing $4 or $5 each.

Operators Liked Rush

Telegraph operators who worked overtime on a bonus system, were reported to have made $12 or $15 a day.

Working on the "piece" system, they rigged up mimeograph copies of the messages so that the whole

HERO OF EGYPTIAN
WAR IN IRELAND TO QUELL REBELLION

Censorship Tight But Crisis Is Known to Be Greatest Since Start of the War

CASEMENT EXECUTION DEMANDED

London Public Roused by Reports of Defiance and Clamor Traitor Be Put to Death

LONDON, April 28.—General Sir

John Maxwell, hero of the Egyptian war of 1882, arrived in Ireland today and assumed immediate command of the troops which will suppress the rebellion.

His point of landing is a secret, as are all other details concerning the progress of the rebellion in the past twenty-four hours. The press bureau, however, hopes to be able to give out a statement in the course of the day dealing with the Irish disorders.

Gravest Crisis

Both the press and public admit today that the Irish rebellion confronts England with the gravest crisis since the war began. (The fact that the British censor passed this expression is indicative of the seriousness of the Irish situation.) The public has no knowledge as to the extent to which the revolt has spread, beyond Premier Asquith's statement mentioning certain counties in particular. It has been reported from time to time, however, that the counties of Meath and Louth, north of Dublin, as well as the western counties of Clare, Tipperary and Limerick were centers of Sinn Fein activities.

Passenger Service Restored

A limited passenger service to Ireland was restored today but the rigid censorship on all dispatches from Irish cities continues. Wild rumors are in circulation regarding the progress of the street fighting in Dublin, where the rebels at last reports held the postoffice and other buildings, but nothing definite is known here.

Demand Casement Execution

The public is demanding the early execution of Sir Roger Casement, who is described in the newspapers as strutting about his cell in the Tower of London, boasting of his success in starting the Dublin revolts. Statements that Sir Roger's life would be spared because he is mentally unbalanced, have aroused intense indignation.

According to one story in circulation in London, Sir Roger's identity was not known until his captors reached Dublin with him.

Won't Name Colleagues

Sir Roger has made a partial confession of his part in the conspiracy but has steadfastly refused to name any of his fellow conspirators in Ireland. He told officers who questioned him that the Germans counted first on harassing England by a series of air and sea raids against the east coast during Holy week. While these raids were being made he was to be landed in Ireland with a picked force that would gather recruits and march eastward toward Dublin.

Weather conditions spoiled the German plans, he surmised, on learning that the Zeppelins had failed to strike at England last week.

Pursuing Wisdom
Around Floods
Hard on Onalaska

Because of the flood which cuts off all land passages between Onalaska and La Crosse from the Minnesota bluffs to the Green Bay tracks, the nine normal students who come down to the normal daily in their search for knowledge are experiencing difficulty in reaching their "eight o'clock." The car does not run and the railroad tracks or the bluff present the only route to this city. As a result the normals studies are forced to arise with Old Sol in order to reach the classes before they are dismissed. Some of the students report that they just reach the limits of the northern village in time to retrace their steps to get the German and the math. Studying is done en route.

Where Flood Danger Concentrates

The triangular Trempealeau Drainage district in which millions of gallons of flood-water are penned up, occasioning continual fear of disaster should the Delta Land Co. dyke give way under the tremendous pressure. From the Northwestern tracks south to the Thompson dyke shown running from Marshland to Trempealeau Mountain, the district is under more than ten feet of water. If the dyke holds, the water will be carried off gradually as the river subsides. If the dyke falls, the water backed up behind it will sweep into Trempealeau Bay and probably carry out with it the 260-foot Burlington steel bridge spanning the bay. It will occasion a rapid rise in the river at this point which will unquestionably cause great damage to the areas already partially submerged.

CASEMENT'S SISTER

Attorney Says Humanitarian Grounds Will Be Advanced; Believe Case Like Edith Cavell's

IRISH DECLARE SYMPATHY

Volunteers in Meeting Intimate They May Give Demonstration of Loyalty

NEW YORK, April 28.—Mrs. Agnes Newman, sister of Sir Roger Casement, Irish leader, now waiting trial in the Tower of London for his part in the Irish revolt, will appeal to President Wilson to save her brother's life.

The announcement was made here by her attorney, Michael Francis Doyle of Philadelphia. The appeal will be on humanitarian grounds.

Doyle believes the precedent set in the case of Edith Cavell, nurse executed by the Germans in Belgium is adequate to warrant a plea by America for Sir Roger's life.

In the Cavell case, Brand Whitlock, United States minister to Belgium urged that the order to shoot Miss Cavell be suspended.

If possible Mrs. Newman will personally present her case to the president, calling attention to Sir Roger's abolition of the Putumayo rubber atrocities and his good work in the Congo.

If she is denied a personal interview Doyle will present the facts. Mrs. Newman came here from Ireland three months ago.

The first brigade of Irish volunteers at a meeting here have declared themselves "in sympathy with men who are fighting for freedom in Ireland."

To Give Aid?

At the meeting it was stated that there are 20,000 Irish volunteers in the United States, many of them veterans of the Spanish-American war. A statement issued, said:

"The board of officers of the First brigade, speaking for themselves and for every man in the command, express the hope that circumstances may enable them, before the struggle for Irish liberty ends to give practical demonstration of their love for the mother land."

Every man of the volunteers, the statement said, is ready to give his life's blood in defense of the stars and stripes.

The Irish are interested in the statement of Colonel Patrick J. Wallace, commander of a Connemara brigade of Irish volunteers that there are 200,000 men in Ireland ready to fight the English.

Don Izel Had Plans?

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Details of plans for the revolt now spreading throughout Ireland are contained in the papers seized from Wolf von Igel, German embassy attaché, when he was arrested in New York, it was indicated Thursday by a high government official.

BRITISH WARSHIP IS SUNK BY MINE
IN MEDITERRANEAN

Battleship Russell Goes Down and One Hundred and Twenty-four of Crew Are Missing

GERMAN SUBMARINES ARE SUNK

Amsterdam Reports Sinking of Second German Diver Between Falkland and Coast

LONDON, April 28.—The British battleship Russell struck a mine and sank in the Mediterranean yesterday, the admiralty announced this afternoon. Of the crew of about 824, one hundred and twenty-four officers and men are missing and believed to have perished.

Admiral Freemantle, Captain W. B. Smith, 22 officers and 676 men of the Russell's crew were saved.

The Russell was one of the older British battleships, having been constructed in 1900-01. She displaced 14,000 tons and was 405 feet long with a beam of 75 feet. She was built at a cost of about $5,000,000.

The Russell normally carried a crew of 750 men. Her armament included four 12-inch guns, twelve 6-inch and twenty guns of lesser calibre. She carried also four torpedo boats.

The battleship Montagu, a sister ship of the Russell was wrecked on Landy in 1906.

U-Boats Are Sunk

LONDON, April 28.—A German submarine was sunk off the east coast of England yesterday, the admiralty announced this afternoon. The crew of 18 surrendered.

Amsterdam dispatches today reported the sinking of another German submarine by a British patrol boat between the Shetland Islands and the Irish coast on April 17, quoting Dutch newspapers as authority.

The Dutch steamers Kawl and Soerakarta witnessed the encounter the dispatches said, the patrol boat attacking the submarine while she was examining the Soerakarta's papers.

THIRD DETACHMENT OF SLAVS LANDED
AT MARSEILLES

MARSEILLES, April 28.—A third convoy of Russian troops was landed here today.

The third Russian contingent joined the second contingent landed a few days ago, which has not yet moved forward to the western front.

The Marseilles dispatch omits mention of the number of Russians landed, though Berlin newspapers assert that only 5,000 Russians were landed from the first transports that reached Marseilles. Shipping men in New York have received reports that from 100,000 to 250,000 Russians would be moved to France.

FLOOD DANGER IS NOW DEPENDENT ON DELTA DYKE

River Rise Practically Over but Water Threatens Wall Bounding Trempealeau Drainage Area

BIG RISE QUICK IF IT GOES

Localities Near La Crosse Now Safe by Matter of Inches Will Certainly Be Submerged

ONALASKA IS STILL CUT OFF

Eleven Inches of Water Covers Highway and Car Tracks; Island Road Still Safe

Goose Green's flood came near to claiming its first life this afternoon when four-year-old Edward Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell, 730 Kane street, fell off the back porch of their home into water over his head. A neighbor girl saw the baby fall and called to his mother, who, with her daughter Geneva, managed to rescue Edward. The boy was unconscious from the water, but first aid methods revived him and he was reported none the worse for his splash.

Upon the Thompson dyke which marks the southern extremity of the Trempealeau Drainage district today depends, rivermen believe, the question of further damage by the present high water on the Mississippi river.

The water was practically stationary today, having risen but a fraction of an inch since yesterday afternoon. But water is now within six inches of the top of the delta dyke. If the water crowding into the district through the big crevasse about East Winona causes the level to rise above the dyke, or if the weight of the penned-up water in the district causes the dyke to let go, millions of gallons of water will sweep into Trempealeau Bay and down upon La Crosse and the lowlands in this vicinity.

Break Means Disaster

Should the dyke let go, it is believed that there will be a sudden and unprecedented rise in the river with disastrous results to the French Island bridge, Riverside park, Goose Island and other localities where the margin of safety is now scarcely more than a matter of inches.

The Mississippi stage today is slightly more than thirteen and six-tenths feet. The stream has risen only a fraction since 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Predictions seem to indicate that the stream will stand at the same stage until the volume of water from the north drops. It is believed the fall will begin about tomorrow night. Burlington railroad officials received reports from agents at Oakland, Minn., near St. Paul, and Prescott, Wis., near the mouth of the St. Croix river, that the Mississippi at those points has dropped an inch. The officials also received word that drops of two inches had been received at Maiden Rock and at Pepin.

Official Reports Less Bright

These reports differ with those given out today by the local weather bureau which say that the river will probably become stationary at St. Paul and La Crosse within thirty-six hours. The weather bureau says the stream will then fall slightly at Red Wing and Reeds Landing.

Principal phases of the flood situation—believed today to be at the turning point—are the announcements of the Burlington railroad that regular freight and passenger traffic has been resumed on the tracks between La Crosse and the Twin Cities, and the statement of street car company officials this morning that eleven inches of water is standing for several rods on the tracks between North La Crosse and Onalaska.

With the street car service out of commission and the highway from La Crosse closed to traffic, only two lines of travel communication are left with the water-bound city. While Northwestern railroad tracks to Onalaska are constantly in danger of water, trains are being operated as usual. Automobile and wagon traffic is going by way of the North Salem road, known as the "back" road to Onalaska.

Trempealeau Fight Won

Burlington officials announced early today that they believed the fight to save four miles of their endangered trackage between Trempealeau Mountain and East Winona had been won.

Reports that the Delta dyke had gone out, which were printed in Milwaukee today, were ridiculed by road officials and foremen of the huge gang of workmen still working to protect the long dyke near Trempealeau Mountain.

The reports said not only that the dyke had gone, but that part of the Burlington steel bridge at the mouth of Trempealeau river had been washed

KAISER BELIEVED
DETERMINED UPON
REPLY TO AMERICA

Belief in Washington Is Gerard Has Been Summoned to Hear Assurances of Friendship

THE HAGUE REPORTS CRISIS PAST

Dutch Business House Advised Grave Situation Already Past Its Danger Point

WHAT DOES THE DATE MEAN

One Message Says That if Break Should Come It Would Not Be Before May 5

BY ROBERT J. BENDER

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The kaiser has determined upon his reply to America and has given his final instructions for the wording of it. Chancellors von Bethmann-Hollweg. This is the interpretation placed today on the kaiser's invitation to American Ambassador Gerard, to visit him at army headquarters. It was declared the reply, for this reason, must be favorable.

It is considered improbable the kaiser would receive Gerard if there were any danger of a break.

It is not thought here Emperor William will discuss details of the negotiations with Gerard, but it is expected he will give the ambassador assurances of Germany's friendship for the United States; or her desire to continue amicable relations and of her efforts to meet the demands made by President Wilson.

Taken in connection with the United Press dispatches yesterday and that from William G. Shepherd today from The Hague to the effect that all danger of a break from the present situation is over, much credence was given the German interpretation of the Gerard visit to the kaiser.

It is thought likely the kaiser will reiterate to Gerard the contention that Germany's submarine warfare in the Atlantic was instituted as an act of reprisal against the alleged British blockade and that Germany has up to now, felt justified for that reason.

First Secretary Grew accompanied the ambassador when he left Berlin in a special car placed at his disposal late last night. The ambassador said he expected to return to Berlin on Sunday.

Some queer ideas were revived in Berlin early this week while the situation was still tense. The old story that President Wilson has entered into a secret agreement with England to throw the United States to the side of the allies was repeated and several members of the reichstag actually went so far as to repeat it to Ambassador Gerard, who made a vigorous denial.

Other Germans buttonholed American correspondents and wanted to know if it wasn't true that the United States had a secret treaty with England.

One thing particularly impressed Germans who were first inclined to believe that the majority of the people of the United States would not stand behind President Wilson. That was the manner in which the American colony in Germany rallied to President Wilson's support. Even many Americans of German birth, who had sometimes been free in criticizing America's stand during the early negotiations ceased their criticisms when a break threatened and made preparations to return to the United States.

Von Capelle to Headquarters

Admiral von Capelle, successor of Von Tirpitz as secretary of the imperial German admiralty, left Wednesday for Grand Army headquarters to confer with the kaiser, presumably with regard to the American note, it was announced today.

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

THE HAGUE, April 28.—Positive assurances have reached the American embassy in Berlin that there will be no diplomatic rupture between Germany and the United States growing out of the present crisis, it was learned here today from reliable sources.

The embassy attaches last Saturday quietly began packing their personal effects. On Wednesday assurances of a nature as yet unrevealed caused them to abandon their preparations for leaving Berlin.

Word late yesterday that there is no prospect at least of an early break was received in messages to a leading Dutch business house last night. One message said that the crisis apparently had passed but that if for some unforeseen reason a break should come, it would certainly not be before May 5. No reason was given in the message for fixing positively this date.

Notwithstanding censored press messages from Germany to the coun-

HOPE FOR PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT SEEN IN MEMORANDUM

Salutary Effect Is Expected from Warning Clauses Which Are Considered Only Incidental

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Hope of a peaceful settlement of the submarine issue was increased in congress when members read Secretary Lansing's memorandum defining proper activities by armed merchantmen, and warning Americans to keep off those which do not live up to the terms named.

Its publication, some believed, might suggest to German officials a way to accede to United States demands, a course otherwise difficult because of the reported attitude of the German public.

While the state department made clear that the clauses in the memorandum relating to possible warnings were only incidental to the main purpose of the document—the issuance of few, if any warnings being anticipated—yet a salutary effect on those congressmen who have urged warning resolutions was expected. For one thing it was suggested, the department has made clear the limitations that must surround any proposal to warn.

In the belief that this memorandum would be a factor in maintaining peace between Germany and the United States, some senators and representatives showed marked relief.

The note was well typed on ordinary commercial paper and bore no signature. The letter was mailed in New York.

MERGER OF SEVEN GREAT FILM FIRMS IS CONSUMMATED

NEW YORK, April 28.—Merger of seven of the biggest motion picture companies in the country is now completed, according to an official statement here Thursday by H. E. Aitken, president of the Triangle Film corporation. The capital involved is estimated at between $25,000,000 and $100,000,000.

The companies in the combine include Triangle Film corporation, New York Motion Picture corporation, Keystone Film company, Majestic Motion Picture company, Reliance Motion corporation, Famous Players' Film company and the Lasky Feature Play company.

MUST DESTROY EVIL DECLARES POINCARÉ

PARIS, April 28.—The allies will never lay down arms "until their sword has reduced evil to impotency and has broken iniquity," declared President Poincaré at the opening of the international economic conference, attended by representatives of the allies yesterday.

"The central empires can never hope to return to their former state," added Poincaré. "Their hypocrisy makes it impossible for them to efface their barbarous deeds. They have done too much. It is their Zeppelin fleets which during the nights hurl burning bombs upon sleeping cities. It is their submarines which sink inoffensive passenger ships. It is their paid bands of spies which seek to sow corruption throughout the entire world. It is their soldiers who have shot down noble nurses."

"You men gathered here are charged to demonstrate to the entire world against whom and what we fight. We shall continue to fight to the very end, confident of the support of all thinking men. While you come here seeking together solutions of justice, it is armed justice that fights under our flags on the Yser and in the Carso, that bars the route to Salonika, that enters Trebizond, that defends Verdun and will not lay down its sword until it has reduced evil to impotency and has broken iniquity."

Good Enough.

"Do you think you can support my daughter in the style to which she has become accustomed?" "No, sir, but I think I can support her in the style to which her mother had to become accustomed when she got married."

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphated hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.

MINING MEN MUST BEAR TAX IMPOSED BY THE DE FACTOS

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Representations of American mining men, made through the state department against new Carranzista tax levies, have proved unavailing. The tax in gold, regarded by many American interests in Mexico as imposing too great a burden upon them, will stand. This was the answer the state department received Thursday from lengthy negotiations with the de facto authorities.

The de facto government is making a valiant effort to re-establish itself upon a sound monetary basis and it hopes to make particular progress by sharing in the enormous profits of the mines Americans have developed.

MONITOR VETERAN WANTS A PENSION

CHILTON, Wis., April 28.—Christopher Prince, one of the survivors of the battle of the Monitor and Merrimac, Thursday asked for a pension. He formerly held aloft. He will also ask the government to let him go through the Panama canal on a warship.

LAWYER HELD FOR MURDER ADVANCES SELF DEFENSE PLEA

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 28.—Charles C. Trabue, attorney charged with murder for shooting Harry S. Stokes, rival lawyer representing taxpayers in a fraud suit, Thursday issued a statement claiming that he killed Stokes in self defense.

Trabue stated that he went to Stokes' private office to demand a signed apology for statements Stokes had made. He said he went armed because he believed Stokes was armed.

Nearly everybody is occasionally overtaken by fear, but some are clever enough not to show it.

Out of Sorts

THAT IS, something is wrong with baby, but we can't tell just what it is. All mothers recognize the term by the lassitude, weakness, loss of appetite, inclination to sleep, heavy breathing, and lack of interest shown by baby. These are the symptoms of sickness. It may be fever, congestion, worms, croup, diphtheria, or scarlatina. Do not lose a minute. Give the child Castoria. It will start the digestive organs into operation, open the pores of the skin, carry off the fetid matter, and drive away the threatened sickness.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of

Forecasts

For Wisconsin: Fair and warmer tonight. Saturday fair and warmer east and south portions, unsettled northwest portion. Winds becoming strong south to southwest winds.

For Minnesota: Partly cloudy tonight, probably becoming unsettled Saturday. Warmer east and south portions tonight. Cooler Saturday afternoon or night. Strong southwest to west winds.

For Iowa: Fair and warmer tonight; Saturday increasing cloudiness with warmer east and cooler west portions. Fresh to strong southwest winds.

Weather Conditions

Rain and snow are falling in the Northwestern states and rain in the North Pacific states; elsewhere the weather is generally fair and with but little cloudiness, except in the Northwest.

It is cooler in the Northeast and warmer in the central and northern Rocky mountain districts and Plains states. Light frost is reported from northwestern Texas to Wisconsin, southern Michigan and northern Ohio.

The pressure is highest from the upper lakes to Texas and lowest in Saskatchewan where a decided low is located.

These conditions indicate fair weather in this section tonight and probably over Saturday, with higher temperature.

River Forecast

La Crosse to St. Paul: The river will probably become stationary at St. Paul and La Crosse within the next 36 hours and fall slightly at Red Wing and Reeds Landing.

The Searchlight

NOISELESS CAR WHEELS
A new type of car wheel has been invented and is now being tried out upon a number of railroads. It consists of a wheel within a wheel, the two separated by an irregularly shaped rubber cushion which acts as a shock absorber. The advantages claimed for this new wheel are that it is more durable than the ordinary wheel, the shock is less to the rails and rolling stock, it is practically noiseless, and if used upon trolley cars it lessens the jolts, thereby materially adding to the comfort of the passengers. The rubber cushion inside the wheel is said to be able to stand four years of continuous usage on a trolley car.

BREAKING THE RIVER

There is enough Mississippi river driving by between La Crosse and La Crescent right now to carry a warship if it were controlled between high enough and strong enough banks. It is rushing down to the gulf uselessly and worse, for it is ripping up the banks and tearing out crops, endangering life and causing losses it would be difficult to estimate.

Between La Crosse and St. Paul it is probably safe to say there are not half a dozen boats on the stream. Later on in the summer there will be a score or more plying in up and down, nudging around sand-bars when they are lucky, sticking on them when they are not. The river will be shrunken so that it takes the canniest of pilots to keep the channel, and even the canniest will miss it now and then.

Some system of flood control is an important feature of the great scheme which is to place the Mississippi river in its proper place as an economical trade artery. Not only for the defense of riparian property and lives, but for the maintenance of useful conditions of traffic, it must come sooner or later. The river won't bear our burdens with any dependability unless it has been broken to harness.

For irrigation projects in the west it has been found worth while to spend millions to impound freshets and release them as needed. Development of some similar system at the headwaters of the Father of Rivers is an engineering problem of vast proportions, indeed, but ultimately desirable if the river revival is to be much more than superficial.

The river needs its proper craft. It needs wharf facilities. With them it needs a bit to curb it when it feels its oats, and translate its energy into pulling at the traces instead of kicking in the dashboard.

THE USES OF ADVERTISING

"Some day I expect to see grand opera stop advertising deficits; it is going to cease advertising opera stars too—to be promptly held up in return by these same stars—and advertise opera. It is going to do the obvious and advertise to the people who do not now go to opera. Then the balconies will be full and opera will pay for itself, as it should."

"Opera is going to come to realize that it has a legitimate merchandising problem—like hotels or books or steamship lines—and that it will respond to legitimate merchandising methods."

"Why, I even look to see the time when our municipalities will wake up to the fact that they are overlooking the obvious when they allow our great libraries, upon which we spend hundreds of thousands of dollars each year, to run along year in and year out only half fulfilling their mission, when a paltry two or three per cent of the total appropriation spent in same newspaper advertising to sell the library idea—the library habit, if you please—to the people would double the usefulness of our libraries to their communities. What a wonderful thing to advertise—a library! Or a great art museum!"

It is the suggestion of a great advertising expert. Perhaps you know him—"Obvious Adams"? What do you think of it?

Of course it would work out fine for the library—or the art museum, when we get the latter. We're just by the way of trying publicity on the toughest kind of a proposition—advertising to men the use and occupancy of a duty they love to shirk. We're advertising the church.

Now the library advertising will pay as an agency for attracting, alluring. Probably the church advertising wouldn't pay so well were it not for the fact that it is more than an appeal—it is an exposure. Every man has a more or less strangled consciousness of that line of duty symbolized by the church. Let him alone and he will neglect it joyously. Talk about it in general, and every guilty rascal thinks you are reading his soul out loud in a public place. He must get to cover, and the only cover for his particular style of nakedness is the church.

NORMAL PRESIDENT IN BULLETIN URGES GUM
RACK FOR SCHOOLS

MADISON, Wis., April 28.—While admitting that the remarks of President J. W. Crabtree of the River Falls normal school may be open to the suspicion of sarcasm, the state educational bulletin issued today comments favorably on the suggestion of the normal school head that there should be a gum rack in schools.

"Pupils have a right to chew gum," President Crabtree is quoted as saying. "Teachers do it, but they know when, where and how. Why not teach these conventionalities to the pupils? Permit the pupil to chew gum on the playground and on the way to and from school. Permit him to teach in school only when teaching grace of movement. But what will the poor child do with his gum while in the recitation or assembly room? If he keeps it in his mouth, he is sure to forget himself and before he is aware of it he is chewing at a lively rate."

"A gum rack at the entrance of the room containing a number and peg for each pupil solves the problem. Each pupil has a number marking the place for his gum. On entering he leaves his gum on his number. On leaving he simply picks his gum off as he walks by. He seldom gets the gum from the wrong number."

THIS IS BIRTHDAY OF BROWNIES MAN

CRANBY, Quebec, April 28.—This is the 76th birthday of Palmer Cox, king of Brownies, the man who created the brownies and made many a winter's night by the fireside a veritable adventure for hundreds of thousands of American "kids," who are not "kids" any more. Cox is not at Brownie castle, that great, rambling mysterious stone pile he came back to this village and built after he won fame and fortune with his saucer-eyed and spindle legged elf. Cox is at his New York residence, and hale and hearty as ever, he says.

DECATUR SAYING
CLASSED AS PAGAN

NEW YORK, April 27.—What constitutes patriotism as differentiated from "pagan sentiment," is a mooted question in the Conference of the World's Alliance of Churches, at Garden City today.

Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Brown, secretary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, declared Commodore Decatur's saying "My Country! May she ever be right. But right or wrong, my country," was a "pagan sentiment." Some of the delegates took exceptions to this viewpoint.

June will soon be here, and then we will have a chance to see how the leap year business is progressing.

and Wanton Wiles

Economy in England

"What's this?" exclaimed the young husband, referring to the memorandum she had given him. "One dozen eggs, a pound of raisins, bottle of lemon extract, a tin of ground cinnamon, and a half-pound of sugar. What on earth do you want with all these things, isle?"

"I've got a stale loaf," replied the young wife, "that I am going to save by working it up into a bread pudding. I never let anything go to waste, Henry—especially in war times!"

Little Patriot

All this talk about hyphenated citizenship has evidently had its effect upon a San Francisco youngster, American-born, who recently rebelled fiercely when his Italian father whipped him for some misdemeanor.

"But, Tommaso, your father has a right to whip you when you are bad," some one of the family said.

Tommaso's eyes flashed. "I am a citizen of the United States," he declared. "Do you think I am going to let any foreigner lick me?"

The Dropped "R"

The gormandizer smacked his lips when the last of his two dozen blue points passed down his throat. Then he looked at his watch.

"12 p. m.," it told him.

He glanced at the calendar on the wall.

"April 30," it said.

"I'd have another month for eatin' oysters if some idiot had never nicknamed May 'May,'" he growled.

Fairly Tale

Once upon a time there was a man who didn't announce that he was out of condition after the other fellow whipped him. All fairy tales begin with once-upon-a-time.

Are You Neutral?

Fogg—How do you side on the war?
Hogg—Oh, I'm a neutral, of course.
Fogg—I hope they win, too!

Not Optimistic

Her brother—Does Bobbie seem to inherit any of his father's artistic temperament?
His sister—Not so far; but I suppose I ought to touch wood.

Sometimes Happens

Mrs. Twickenbury remarked of a neighbor who was succeeding as an author: "She is getting very profligate with her pen."

Not Her Say

"Do you think Miss Oldgirl will ever change her mind and marry?"
"No; if she marries it will be because some man of her acquaintance changes his mind."

Don't Forget

Doctor (to patient)—You've had a pretty close call, it's only your strong constitution that pulled you through.

Patient—Well, Doctor, remember that when you make out your bill.

CUZCO

There are several cities in America today that lay claim to the distinction of being called the Athens of the new world. There is no record that Cucho has ever put in a bid for the honor, but if she cared to, she could make out a better case than most of Athens of America. For Cucho was the Athens of America, not in a weak and imitative way, but with out even knowing that Athens of Greece existed.

If you are interested only in the present and the future there is little in Cucho to repay a visit. She is a thriving industrial city, but there are bigger industrial cities nearer home. She has the easy charm of Latin America. That charm, however, may be found in places with better railroad connections. But if you thrill at the sight of ancient walls and monuments, if your imagination takes fire at the traces of a swampy and buried civilization, at the thought that here another race lived and loved and fought and wrought cunningly in stone and metal, struggled with nature, did its work and passed away;—if these mean anything to you, Cucho is ten times worth visiting.

The old and the new are mingled here until it is impossible to reach for the one without grasping at the same time something of the other. The sixty modern churches bear witness to the triumph of the Spanish missionaries over the sun-god, but the great Temple of the Sun still remains in proof of his old-time power. Modern buildings rest on foundations of Inca stone, cut with rude tools, to resist the site of the old public square of the Indians. Everywhere this flavor of the ages, this superposition of the old upon the new.

That old civilization was no mean one, no mere florid barbarianism, it flowered in an art and a government worthy of respect, in spite of its savage religion. There is a certain tragedy in its complete downfall, in the thought that its beginnings never reached a goal. The old cities of Europe are built upon the foundations laid long ago by the forefathers of the present builders. Cucho has seen her beginnings cast aside by an alien race. She is not built upon old foundations. She is built upon old ruins.

Short Story

A MATTER OF TEETH

BY HELEN MERRITT

(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Miss Arabella was all in a flutter. When a woman, having attained the age of forty-five, unmarried and uncourted, suddenly begins to receive marked attentions from an eligible man, she may be pardoned for getting a little bit excited.

And Miss Arabella's life had contained so little love, so little personal interest, that the fact that some one thought enough of her to show her little attentions, bring her little gifts and defer to her timidly expressed opinions seemed to bring the dawn of a new existence.

Mr. Jenkins had come unostentatiously into his place at Miss Arabella's boarding house before. At first, he had attended strictly to his own affairs, but, as he was a gentleman of leisure, this soon grew monotonous. Then, in casting about for human companionship he passed over the younger women and the girls and began to cultivate an acquaintance with Miss Arabella. First it was just short conversations in the parlor of evenings. Then it blossomed into offerings of a new magazine, a bunch of violets, or a box of candy. From this was a short step to an invitation to go occasionally to the picture show in the evening or for a walk in the nearby park on Sunday afternoon. By the time spring blossomed into summer the boarders had accepted the incipient romance, and no one thought of intruding on Miss Arabella's corner on the evenings when she and Mr. Jenkins sat in the parlor talking little, but beaming at each other beatifically.

And now it was June, and the day after tomorrow would be Mr. Jenkins' birthday. And he had invited Miss Arabella with an air which there was no mistaking, to motor with him to the beach for an evening dinner. The middle-aged woman had not yet declared herself, but Arabella was morally certain that she would come back from the beach trip an engaged woman. Her heart—even at forty-five—thrilled at the prospect.

Alas for human hopes. On the very morning of the birthday, after Miss Arabella had timidly presented the gift she worked for her admirer with her own fair hands, she bites into a piece of hard candy taken from a box which Mr. Jenkins had brought her the evening before, and snap! went the plate of her upper teeth. They were beautiful, but deceitful teeth. Without them, Miss Arabella looked every one of her forty-five years. With them, she could easily have passed for ten years younger.

Miss Arabella was in despair. But she did not ponder long over the situation. Stealing out of the house unseen, she hastened to the dentist who had made the teeth.

No, declared the toothrat, he couldn't possibly fix the teeth while she waited. It might be possible to get them done by five o'clock. He wouldn't promise.

But he did promise finally. Miss Arabella's agony moved even his hard heart. He agreed to send the teeth before he closed up that night. Miss Arabella went back to Miss Cross'.

As she neared the house, she saw emerging from it the figure of Mr. Jenkins. He seemed to be in a hurry. Lucky for Miss Arabella that he was. She dodged quickly into a doorway, and breathed a sigh of relief when Mr. Jenkins had passed and she emerged undetected.

Miss Arabella lunched on a glass of hot milk and a sponge biscuit, brought to her room by the chambermaid. She put in the afternoon watching the clock and praying that the dentist would not fail her. At 6:30, the automobile would be at the door.

At 6 o'clock, in a tasty new gown and hat reserved for the occasion, she heard a knock. She opened the door just enough to permit the dentist's boy to thrust in a small box. Then Miss Arabella breathed again. She hastily undid the paper, opened the box, took out the teeth—and almost collapsed on the spot.

They were not her teeth! They belonged to a much larger mouth evidently than Miss Arabella's. She gazed at them horror-stricken. Then she burst into tears.

Strange to say, in Mr. Jenkins' room a similar scene—minus the weeping and plus a few harsher words than Mr. Jenkins usually used—was being enacted. That very morning, Mr. Jenkins had broken off a front tooth. He had persuaded—without difficulty—his dentist to repair the damage and deliver the teeth that night.

But they were not his teeth. Imagine a good dinner without any upper teeth. Imagine proposing to the lady of your choice, whose teeth were perfect, with an empty upper jaw!

Mr. Jenkins gave himself up to despair. And just at that moment the chambermaid knocked at his door and handed in a note.

It was from Miss Arabella. In terms of the utmost regret it announced that the writer, for reasons she could not explain, would

NEWS NOTES from MOVIELAND

60 DAISY DEAN

Mlle. Rita Jolivet, one of the survivors of the Lusitania disaster, after a sojourn abroad, has returned to America with a husband and has signed a contract to appear in motion pictures for Oliver Morosco.

Few knew of her marriage, so well had the secret been guarded. Her matrimonial choice was Count De Cippico, the Italian horseman. The count is interested in the motion picture industry in Italy.

Rita Jolivet made her American stage debut about four years ago with Otis Skinner in "Kismet." She has appeared in a number of Italian photo play successes. She first appeared in motion pictures in this country for Jesse L. Lasky in "The Unafraid," released on the Paramount program.

Although the subject in which Mlle. Jolivet will make her initial screen appearance has not yet been made public, it is understood that it will be one of George Broadhurst's recent stage successes.

Girl Pilots Boat
In Petrova Picture

Shipping men in the upper bay, New York, were surprised to see a beautiful young girl at the wheel in the pilot house of a sea-going tug that picked its way to the Battery wall. All along the route they blew their whistles and sirens in salutation and the girl responded with short toots, as she was too busy at the wheel to devote much time in exchanging greetings.

The girl was Evelyn Brent, the pretty young ingenue, who is appearing in Metro plays and who, with several members of the Popular Plays and Players, had been out to the lighthouse at Sandy Hook to make the final scenes for "Playing With Fire," in which Olga Petrova is starred.

On the return from Sandy Hook, Miss Brent asked permission to run the boat, assuring the captain that she could, as she knew everything about an automobile and motor boat. He agreed and she had the time of her life.

Mlle. Valkyrien, the dancer, soon is to be starred in a play which starts in the year 2000 B. C. and ends on

VERSE and REVERSE

Democratic Mule and Wilson
The democratic mule has balked, in the Wilson administration; Woodrow now is muchly shocked And also this big nation.

The president can't drive the mule; Why don't he stop his fooling And go right back to teaching school We know that he's got schooling.

He tried to milk the kaiser's cow; He feared she'd go to kicking. The Germans said "nix-kom-raus." "You think that we was chicken?"

Old Mexico he threatened twice, To give them a lambasting; But Greaser boys had all found out That Wilson's "watchful waiting."

The Villa hunt is all a joke, To catch that Mexican bandit, He fears that he'd the army croak in Mexico's great sand pit.

So let us get another man, That we have tried already, I believe right now that Uncle Sam Has got his eye on Teddy.

BADGER COUNTY
IN BABY SURVEY

MADISON, Wis., April 28.—Iowa county, Wisconsin, which has been selected by the children's bureau of the United States department of labor as one of the typical districts to be included in its study of infant welfare in the United States, is the first county in a northern state to be included in the inquiry. This year for the first time these studies are being carried on outside the cities.

The field work in Iowa county will be done by Dr. Florence Brown Sherbon, a physician, and Miss Elizabeth Moore, one of the special agents of the children's bureau. They will shortly commence their house to house canvass of selected townships in Iowa county and within the next few weeks they will visit every mother in these townships who has had a baby born since May 1, 1914.

UNUSUAL MORTALITY IN PAST WINTER

MADISON, Wis., April 28.—Evidence of the unusual fatality from illness throughout the state the past winter is seen in the quarterly report on mortality, covering January, February and March, 1916, announced today by the state board of health. Total deaths reported in that period were 9,016, as compared with 7,995 in the corresponding quarter of 1915. Pneumonia holds its customary place in the first rank as a cause of death, yielding a toll of 1,652 lives, as against 1,299 in the same period last year. Practically every communicable disease shows an increase in mortality over the same quarter of 1915.

THE BUSINESS MAN IS POWDER MAKER

MADISON, Wis., April 28.—That the business men's league of New York, which is anxious to secure a businessman for president, is backing Coleman Du Pont was indicated today when the delegates to the republican convention from Chicago received literature from this organization giving the qualifications of Mr. DuPont.

CENTENARIAN DIES

MADISON, Wis., April 28.—The death of Mrs. Charlotte Koepke at the age of 102 years, at her home in Milwaukee county, was recorded on the state records of vital statistics this week, her demise being due to broncho-pneumonia. She was born in Germany in a year when America and Britain were engaged in their last combat.

STALWART PLAN TO NAME ENTIRE TICKET IN STATE

Another Convention Promised by Philipp to Select Men to Run for State Office

MADISON, Wis., April 28.—In his speech to the conservative republican conference on Wednesday, Governor Philipp promised a later convention for the nomination of a state ticket. This announcement is taken to mean that the conservative faction will place a complete ticket in the field at the September primaries. It is a foregone conclusion that Governor Philipp will seek another term as chief executive of the state. The balance of the ticket was the subject of much discussion at the conference.

Many Old Candidates

There seems to be a general opinion here following the Wednesday conference that many of the men who were conservative republican candidates for state offices two years ago may again be selected this year. Marshall Cousins of Eau Claire, prominent in Wednesday's conference, will again be a candidate for lieutenant governor according to present gossip. Senator J. Henry Bennett of La Crosse has announced that he will oppose Attorney General Walter C. Owen for the office of attorney general. Frank R. Bentley of Baraboo, a candidate for this office two years ago, is not on such friendly terms with the administration now as during the last campaign, and it is said will not be a candidate for attorney general.

To Endorse Johnson?

Another peculiarity of the political gossip is that the conservatives will in all probability endorse Henry Johnson, the present state treasurer, as their candidate. Two years ago there was some sentiment in favor of the conservatives endorsing Mr. Johnson, but at the last minute a candidate was placed against him. Recently many of the strong conservatives of the state have come out in Johnson's behalf.

Nels Holman of Deerfield, who lacked but a few votes of defeating John S. Donald for the office of secretary of state two years ago, may again try for the honor. It required an official count last year to determine the case and Holman's friends are optimistic.

WINSTON CHURCHILL WRITES BLACKSMITH LETTER OF THANKS

ALTOONA, April 28.—Charles Gorsuch, blacksmith, who forges little horseshoes and sends them to notables, was proudly exhibiting a letter from Winston Churchill today. He sent the former head of the British admiralty one of the horseshoes and received in return Churchill's thanks. Churchill's letter also extended assurances that Great Britain "is protecting America from aggression."

Decoration of Sweet Potatoes.

Sweet potatoes, placed in cut glass or other bowls filled with water, send forth a decorative yellowish-green vine, which has become very popular, according to report, the plants requiring no earth whatever, but consuming an inordinate amount of water.

Muffins

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

When muffins are on the breakfast table, nobody cares for meat or eggs and they would be served more often if this meal were not prepared so hurriedly that there is no time to make them. If K. C. the double-raise baking powder is used, the batter may be stirred up the night before, put in the pan ready for baking and nothing to do in the morning but bake them.

One-Egg Muffins

2 cups flour; 2 slightly rounded teaspoonsful K. C. Baking Powder; 1 teaspoonful salt; 1 cup sugar; 1 cup melted butter or lard; 1 egg; 1 cup water or milk.

Sift dry ingredients together three times. Add to this the unbeaten egg, melted shortening and water or milk. Then beat all together until perfectly smooth. Oil muffin or gem pans and have oven slow until the muffins come to the top of the pan, then increase the heat to bake and brown the muffins. This recipe makes 12 large muffins. Raisins or currants may be added if desired.

Graham Muffins

1 cup graham flour; 1 cup pastry flour; 2 level teaspoonsful K. C. Baking Powder; 1 to 2 level tablespoonsful sugar; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; 1 egg; 1 1/2 cups milk or water; 2 to 3 tablespoonsful melted butter; mix and bake as One-Egg Muffins.

Graham batter should always be quite soft to insure light and moist muffins. To get 33 other recipes as good as these, send us the certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K. C. Baking Powder, and we will send you "The Cook's Book" by Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill. Handsomely illustrated. Jacques Mig. Co., Chicago.

MISS KAEPLER GIVES PARTY AT HOUSTON TO YOUNG FRIENDS

HOUSTON, Minn., April 28.—(Special.)—Miss Helen Kaepler entertained at a delightful party Wednesday in honor of her twelfth birthday. The evening was spent in playing games and at 9 o'clock a delicious supper was served. Those present were the Misses Geneva Virack, Castella Onstad, Delia Gausted, Florence Rasmussen, Myrtle Norskog, Evelyn Cooper, Martha Anderson, Grace Gordon, Lillian Peterson, Abby Burfield, Grace Steele, Georgia Johnson, Gladys Kittleson, Mabel Vathing, Mildred Stenberg, Harriet Fay and Bernice Magnusson. Miss Clarice Sennes entertained the Stone church choir at her home on the north side Wednesday evening. Lunch was served.

Persons

Miss Anna Anderson returned to Chicago Monday after a brief visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson of Swede Bottom.

Sheriff Blexrud of Caledonia was a business caller here the first of the week.

Martin Laugen of St. Paul spent Easter with his parents here.

Marietta Lily is enjoying a week's vacation from her studies at the Wisconsin normal.

Miss Elma Jord, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is slightly better.

Miss Tilda Lewis went to La Crosse Thursday to see "Birth of a Nation."

Harold Kremer spent Easter with his parents here.

Jim Fay was a La Crosse visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chapel were Caledonia callers Wednesday.

TANNER EXPECTS DIVORCE FROM "STOLEN SWEETS"

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 28.—The decision of the sensational divorce suit of John H. Pfingsten, a wealthy tanner of this city, against Mrs. Pauline Pfingsten, will be announced by Judge Quinlan tomorrow. The husband claims his wife participated in an elopement from Milwaukee to Detroit with Theodore Roehm, an eccentric orchestra director. The husband said he followed the elopers and discovered the couple in a taxicab. There was a scene, but the wife refused to return home. The husband claimed that his wife showed affection for other men as well as the orchestra leader, and was particularly fond of musicians.

It was testified that Mrs. Pfingsten journeyed to New York with another temperamental musician, a famous violinist. The names of other affiliates were brought into the suit, including an Hawaiian mandolinist, a saloonkeeper and a city fireman. A photographer testified that Mrs. Pfingsten, while telling of her affairs with other men, said "stolen sweets were sweeter". Prominent men testified how they refused to be lured by the tanner's wife.

The case was bitterly fought in the courts. Mrs. Pfingsten claimed that the charges were due to jealousy. She says her husband was a mere laborer when she married him, and that through her help he became a tannery expert and developed into a man of wealth.

Against her own wishes the accused wife was forced to testify in the case, but she refused to answer as to her guilt with the orchestra leader, on the ground that her answer would tend to incriminate her.

CAN STOP POLICE SERVING PAPERS

MADISON, Wis., April 28.—In an opinion to District Attorney Selig, Antigo, yesterday General Owen declares that the city council and police commission of that city have the power to stop a policeman from serving civil papers. The council forbade this action, and the matter was put before the state authorities. That the charging of a 25 cent fee by the court at Sheboygan for the issuance of labor permits is extortion and that there is no authority in the law for such action is the opinion of the attorney general to Warren E. Hicks of the state continuation schools. At Madison and Racine the permits are issued by the continuation schools without charge.

Some people get a lot of satisfaction out of trouble by lying about it.

THE SILO

MADISON, Wis., April 28.—Farmers and fruit growers are beginning their annual fights against insects, and J. G. Sanders, entomologist of the Wisconsin department of agriculture, has just issued a bulletin, describing methods of control, that will enable both to wage the wars with telling effect.

The bulletin is illustrated, and from a summary of "inside information" on the title page the following extracts are taken:

Insect pests are more abundant than formerly.

Every farmer is raising the majority of his insect pests.

There is no single remedy for all insect pests.

Avoid insecticides that are advertised as cure-alls.

A knowledge of the feeding habits of insects is essential for combating them.

Many insects cannot be controlled by spraying; and various farm practices—crop rotation sanitation, etc.—are necessary.

Spraying has been aptly and justly termed "crop insurance."

Chewing insects are generally controlled by poisoning their food.

Sucking insects are controlled by spraying the insects themselves.

Distinguish insect injury from fungus diseases.

Careful straining of spray solutions prevents clogging of spray nozzles.

Keep poisons safely beyond reach of children.

The bulletin is furnished free of charge upon application to J. G. Sanders, State Entomologist, State Capitol, Madison.

TRIED FOR LIBELING
FATHER OF NATION

TACOMA, Wash., April 28.—Charged with criminally libeling George Washington, Paul R. Haffer, socialist, went to trial today. In a newspaper letter he alleged Washington drank and swore.

Colonel A. E. Joab, local attorney, filed the complaint, saying that as Washington was the "father of his country," all Americans were his children and any of them had a right to demand redress for insults directed at their national parent.

Defense Counsel Pendleton replied that if this were logical reasoning, Adam was the father of all men, and anyone could start criminal proceedings if some person maligned Adam.

The court said Adam had no standing in law and ordered Haffer held.

BIG CHORUS WILL FEATURE OPERA
OF HIGH SCHOOL

Dress Rehearsal Yesterday Indicates "Chimes of Normandy" Will Set Record

With four worthy assistants helping her Miss MacLean has succeeded in whipping the largest chorus ever attempted by the high school into a shape which will certainly make a hit when the curtain goes up on "The Chimes of Normandy" at the La Crosse theater tonight. It has been found necessary to use the dressing rooms as "storage," the girls having four and the boys two rooms to stay in. They will be called out by groups and the responsibility of their entrances will rest upon the members of faculty taking charge. Dress rehearsal was held last evening from 4 to 8 with a short time for lunch, which was furnished by the school. Indications are that it will be the most successful high school production ever attempted.

The seats are going like wild-fire, but there are still half a hundred fairly good seats remaining for tonight's performance. This is mainly because of the decision to give a second performance Saturday afternoon. The expenses of the play this year are much greater than last and with a packed house tonight it was doubtful whether expenses would be cleared. The demand for tickets has been so great, however, that the authorities feel justified in setting the cast through another show Saturday afternoon. Students will be admitted for 15 cents, but the other prices will probably change very little.

SAYS CHURCH
CANNOT IGNORE
COMMERCIAL WORLD

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The social and economic problems of the world, no less than the spiritual, fling a challenge to Christianity which it must meet in the fearless and humanitarian spirit of its founder, Raymond Robbins of Chicago, declared today in a speech to the Men's National Missionary congress.

Without forgetting the Master's injunction to "preach the gospel to every creature," the church must remember that its mission calls a courageous stand for economic justice to even the lowliest, said Robbins.

He told of the need for a powerful champion he had found among the tenements and slums of Chicago.

Other speakers pointed out that the mission movement would greatly benefit if the financiers back of it would work through the commercial interests they have in the non-Christian world.

The average woman can praise her husband to other women without believing one word she says.

CLASS GAMES TO EXHIBIT CLASS OF NORMAL MEN

With the class base ball games still in progress at the normal, no first team work has been possible as the selection of the first squad is to be left until the conclusion of the inter-class schedule. Then the coaches will make their choices from the various class teams. A schedule of six games has been announced by Manager Dupee for the normal team this season. It embraces contests with a north side aggregation, the Onalaska city team, the Tomah Indians, and St. Mary's college of Winona. Following is the schedule to date:

Saturday, May 6—Dome theater here.

Saturday, May 13—Onalaska at Onalaska.

Thursday, May 18—Tomah Indians at Tomah.

Saturday, May 27—St. Mary's college here.

Thursday, June 1—St. Mary's college at Winona.

Saturday, June 10—Tomah Indians here.

The high school team was trounced last night by the physical eds.

EXPLOSIVES EVIDENCE

NEW YORK, April 28.—Enough deadly explosives to blow up the court room were introduced as evidence yesterday in the trial of "Lieutenant" Robert Fay, Walter Scholz and Paul Daech, alleged German bomb plotters. It was alleged to have been found at the home of Fay in Union Hill, N. J. Judge Howe nervously told Fay to put down a stick of dynamite after the defendant had picked it up from a box on the table.

Carl S. Wittig identified a cigar box and seven sticks of dynamite it contained as the one he saw in Fay's home.

SENATOR IS TO PLANT ELMS IN HIS EARLY HOME

MADISON, Wis., April 28.—Senator La Follette is coming back to Wisconsin on May 6 to plant a dozen Washington Elms in the public grounds of Mount Vernon, a little village in western Dane county, near where the senator spent his early days. He will be the speaker for the occasion. Secretary of State John S. Donald was raised near Mt. Vernon. On two separate visits to the Mt. Vernon home of George Washington he has obtained walnut nuts from the grounds, which he has planted at Mt. Vernon, without success. Last year as the result of a letter the superintendent at the Washington Mt. Vernon home promised to send a dozen small elm trees, the offshoots from a tree planted by President Washington.

The trees were received last fall and have been cared for during the winter in proper nursery form by Conservation Commissioner Moody.

CLOSE PLANTS ON STRIKERS

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 28.—Plants connected with the Westinghouse industries were indefinitely closed by orders of the management today.

Hundreds of men from each had failed to report for work in the last three days.

The total number of munitions workers on strike today was placed at 30,000 by the strike leaders.

Take Iron, Says
Doctor, if You Want Plenty of
"Stay There" Strength
Like an Athlete!

Ordinary Nuxated Iron Will Make Delicate, Nervous, Rundown People 200% Stronger in Two Weeks' Time, in May Cases

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or narcotic drug, said Dr. Sauer, a well known specialist, who has studied widely both in this country and Europe, when, as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From their weakened, nervous condition they know something is wrong, but they can't tell what, so they generally commence doctoring for stomach, liver or kidney trouble or symptoms of some other ailment caused by the lack of iron in the blood. This thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test. See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, rundown people who were ailing all the while, double and even triple their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form, and this after they had in some cases been doctoring for and increasing their strength 200 per cent without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prize fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the fray, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron recommended above by Dr. Sauer, is one of the newer organic iron compounds. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, rundown conditions. FLOOD DANGER IS NOW DEPENDENT ON DELTA DYKE ed into the Mississippi. Seventeen trains were operated over the Burlington last night and probably double that number went safely over the line today. All trains are running under "slow orders" however.

Captain W. A. Thompson, president of the Delta Land company, has been almost constantly at the Thompson dyke since the East Winona break made the situation acute. Reports reaching Captain Thompson's office today indicated that the dyke was still safe. With the river stationary, it is now believed that it will soon be out of danger.

Captain Thompson is of the opinion that the flooded drainage district—filled with an enormous lake of water when the Burlington fell near East Winona broke last Sunday—will be emptied entirely when the Mississippi resumes its normal stage.

Ten Feet Under Water
It was estimated today that ten feet of water covers the five-mile square district. Water now is close to the ties of the Burlington tracks, which have been fortified for three days and nights with thousands of sand bags and other material. The Thompson dyke is said to be only six inches out of water, although holding strongly. Engineers in charge of the railroad work in the flooded area now say that in the event the dyke should break, nothing could save the 260 foot bridge at the mouth of Trempealeau river.

It was with immense relief that the river was found last night to be on the standstill. With positive reports that it could not rise more than a fraction of an inch, and would

FOKKER DESTROYED BY FRENCH PLANES VERDUN FRONT QUIET

PARIS, April 23.—Numerous air raids along the western front in which German planes, including a Fokker, were brought down, were reported by the war office today.

There were no important activities on the whole front excepting intermittent bombardment northwest of Verdun.

A French squadron dropped eighteen bombs on La Marche station in the Voivre. One German plane attacked by the French dropped near Donauwörth, badly damaged, and another fell near Montfaucon. A French aviator piloting a Neupont monoplane defeated a Fokker which fell behind the German lines.

The Germans dropped shells at frequent intervals during the night in the region of Avocourt, Esne and Fromey.

German Flyers Work
BERLIN, April 23.—There was no change in the situation on the Verdun front last night, the war office stated this afternoon.

East of Verdun, forty six English soldiers, two machine guns and a mine thrower were captured. A German air squadron bombarded an enemy barracks at St. Menchould.

probably drop, officials gave the word which started traffic.

Better in City
High water conditions on the La Crosse river front, where manufacturing plants and several wholesale concerns are experiencing floods in their basements and serious inconvenience in shipping, are believed today to have passed the danger mark.

Flood-water rushing down the Mississippi has brought many remarkable situations and happenings, not the least of which was witnessed this morning when George Miller, a traveling salesman for the Rubier Mills company, launched his powerboat on the Riverside Park drive. The boat was carried to the park in a dray, and then shoved overboard into the water. The painter was tied to the railing on the park seawall, and the boat floated comfortably six feet or so above the bituminous concrete auto road.

Scow is Caboose
Merriment was occasioned in "Commision Row" yesterday afternoon when a greyhound-built switch-engine braved the zigzag river bank of the front street wholesale houses to drag out of their marooned position a number of box cars caught by the flood. The engine's fire-box was but a few inches from the top of the water, and it cast up a fine wake as it steamed along the submerged track with a "bone in its teeth" for all the world like an ocean liner. Trailing along behind the last box car of the string was a flat-scow which some one had tied to the coupler.

The French island pike today has the appearance of a military barricade. Practically the entire road between the two Black River bridges has been lined with stakes driven out several feet in the water. Brush and hay has been placed behind the piling, and on it sand is being dumped. The workers at present fear south winds more than they do the rise of the river. Should a heavy wind spring up from the south with the south bank unprotected, it is deemed certain parts of the road would be destroyed. The workmen late yesterday drove the last spot of water from the road.

To protect the causeway from wave action, the city today cut down many trees along the road between the north and south sides and placed them as buffers for the waves. In many places deep holes have been washed into the banks.

Plant Floor Flooded
Water has invaded the plant of the La Crosse Box company at Car and Avon streets, but not sufficient quantities to cause suspension of operations. Only low spots of the first floor are flooded.

Water to the depth of six inches or more continues to cover the street car curve at Rose and Monitor streets, but transferring passengers has not yet been necessary.

Goose Green continues to be a lake, with the numerous residences virtual islands.

KILLIAN DEFENDS HIS INSPECTIONS BEFORE COMMITTEE

Electricians Repeat Their Charges and Inspector Answers Before Council Committee

Frank J. Killian, veteran electrical inspector of the fire department, defended the efficiency of his administration before a committee of the common council last night, while a committee of the electricians' union repeated their charges that his age and other duties have acted to allow the passage of numerous pieces of wiring alleged to be unsafe.

Killian admitted when the electricians asked him point-blank, that on certain jobs he had not been able to crawl through small doors to examine attic wiring, and other similar charges. He maintained, however, that he had passed no work not sufficiently safe.

The committee of the council took no action on the petition of the electricians to have Killian replaced by a full time inspector. They held the matter open, and decided to get the opinion of electrical contractors on the advisability of the electricians' suggestion before reporting.

The aldermen indicated a desire to keep down the city pay-roll if possible.

HARD TO SELECT SHREW FOR PLAY FROM THE CO-EDS

The tryouts for positions on the cast of the normal class play, "The Taming of the Shrew," have been completed. Most difficulty was experienced by the judges in selecting a young lady to take the part of Katharine, the shrew, and it was almost decided by those in charge to drop the production entirely. Finally, however, Miss Marian Neprud was chosen for the difficult part. Many young ladies competed for this important position. Mr. Alois Englehard will have the part of Bertruchio the suitor. Following is the entire caste for the senior production:

A Lord—Ralph Kindley.

Christopher Sly, a tinker—Thomas Skemp.

Hostess, servant—Martha Skaar.

Baptista, a rich gentleman of Padua—William Gates.

Betruchio, suitor—Alois Englehard.

Hortensio, husband to Bianca—Elmer Johnson.

Pedro, Brondello, Grunio, servants to Baptista—Theodore Grauer, Harvey Riebe, Julien Bloom.

Walter, Nathaniel, Gregory, Gabriel, servants to Betruchio—Arthur Nelson, Herbert Wheaton, Foster Finner, John Weiss.

A music master—Malcolm Maine.

Katharine—Marian Neprud.

Bianca—Alice Taylor.

Curtis, housekeeper—Marion Dawson.

work of "taking" a message was to write its number and then select the proper "form" for the text, signer and the person to whom it was addressed. The crest of the flood was reached midnight Wednesday.

Co-ordinate with the desire of congressmen today to know where the money came from was desire to know who put the stop-order on the telegrams. It was reported the original plan had been to bombard congress with 500,000 messages. Shortly before Senator Husting suggested a public inquiry, San Francisco reported ten thousand telegrams on hand for Washington and Milwaukee reported five thousand. A few hours later the San Francisco and Milwaukee offices reported the telegrams had been ordered cancelled by the senders.

"BE AS CAREFUL OF SELF AS AUTO" URGES DR. ERNST

Tuberculosis Is Curable if Discovered in Time Declares Milwaukeean in Health Day Address

URGES FREQUENT EXAMINATION

Chief Obstacle to Exterminating White Plague Is People Are Afraid to Admit They Have It

"The mechanism of an automobile is treated with far more consideration than the human system in a large majority of cases," Dr. George R. Ernst, head of the tuberculosis work of the city health department of Milwaukee, told an audience at the First Congregational church last night. He spoke on the methods in use against tuberculosis in his city. His address closed Public Health Day.

"People would not dare give their automobile the small amount of attention they usually give their delicate human systems," Dr. Ernst said, "for their machines would not last long."

Urges Examinations

Dr. Ernst made an urgent plea for frequent examination in order to early detect signs of the disease. He declared that nearly everyone at some stage of life has or will have tuberculosis, but while telling of its fatality, he maintained that tuberculosis is a curable disease.

"We now have about 2,500 registered cases of the white plague in the city of Milwaukee," Dr. Ernst said, "and this is only a small part of the actual number of cases—the largest part of which have not as yet come to the attention of the health department."

"The most important thing in fighting the disease is early diagnosis. The United States today is flooded with literature pertaining to tuberculosis, but it fails to check it. The main trouble, I believe, is that the individual does not know that he himself has the disease. I believe that many people are afraid to submit to themselves that they are suffering from tuberculosis."

"Something Else"

"Many people I have known have explained carefully to themselves that although they have every symptom of the trouble they have not tuberculosis but that it is 'something else'."

"The big problem in fighting tuberculosis in America today is to get the people to submit to frequent examinations. The first step in this is implanting the belief that the disease is not fatal."

"Nearly all children of tender ages are affected at one time or another," he said.

Dr. Ernst ridiculed the physician who is afraid to tell his patient that he has the disease. He told the audience last night that tuberculosis was as much a disease of childhood as the measles or chickenpox.

Baby Week Plans

Mrs. G. H. Brettnal, general chairman of the Baby Week movement here, to be culminated on the week of April 15, spoke briefly at the meeting last night on plans for Baby Week here. She made the announcement that lists of infants would be gathered from schools and hundreds of homes would be visited. Mrs. Brettnal expressed the hope that a permanent association would grow out of the Baby Week work being done all over the country now.

ry, the populace of Berlin has shown hostility to Americans since the arrival of President Wilson's latest note.

The above dispatch from a United Press staff correspondent at The Hague furnished strong corroboration of an exclusive dispatch from Carl W. Ackerman, United Press staff correspondent at Berlin yesterday that the German American crisis has virtually passed and that there will be no break "predicated on developments to date." Ackerman's information was obtained from authoritative sources in Berlin. Shepherd obtained his information from diplomats at The Hague and from a certain Dutch business house which is unusually well informed on affairs at Berlin.

Reports of injuries among the Mexican officials were not confirmed. would attempt to obtain the prompt withdrawal of the United States expedition. Carranza officials here privately favored its continued presence on Mexican soil for a time owing to the critical internal situation facing the de facto government.

Report Carranza Weakness

Renewed reports of the increasing feebleness of Carranza's hold on Mexico were received today simultaneously with evidence of currency depreciation and threatened famine. An appeal to the American Red Cross or Rockefeller foundation for food supplies is considered a possibility. The net result of the conferences is expected to be an agreement that the United States troops remain where they are until the Carranza government has a chance to make good on Villa's capture and the pacification of the northern Mexican border territory.

Scott and Funston will arrive tonight. A ceremonial session of the conferees probably will be held in the Juarez customs house tomorrow but the military chiefs are not expected to get down to their real business before Monday.

Juarez Under Heavy Guard

Juarez, where Villa sentiment is strong, will be under heavy Carranza guard during Obregon's presence at the border.

A decree issued by Luis Cabrera, Mexican secretary of the treasury, prohibits the export of gold or silver bars and coin. In El Paso this is believed to be a final attempt to put the Carranza government on a stronger financial basis for handling its internal problems. Refugees reported the most frightful conditions of poverty in interior Chihuahua and Durango. Typhus was reported to be spreading.

NO TIME SET

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The big problem of withdrawing the American expedition from Mexico apparently will be the chief element in the Scott-Obregon border conference, authorities here thought today. Scott, however, is understood not to be authorized to set any hard and fast time for taking out the troops. Press reports indicating Obregon will emphasize this point brought indications that Scott will seek an understanding with Carranza's war minister whereby the task of the Villa hunters will be expedited. In this connection he may propose that Carranza's soldiers independently scour a portion of Chihuahua while the American columns search elsewhere.

VILLISTAS THINNED

COLUMBUS, N. M., April 23.—Only a few Villista bands of any size remain, according to information here today. The largest is in the Sierras near the Durango line. Another is east of Minaca flying before an American pursuing column under Colonel Dodd. Small marauding bands are sprinkled throughout Chihuahua state, however.

Villa himself has not been mentioned in official reports for many days. Military officials believe he may have gone into hiding far removed from any possible interruption by United States soldiers.

More Troops to Go Over

COLUMBUS, N. M., April 23.—For the purpose of further strengthening his communication lines as General Pershing requested, half of all the soldiers at the base camp here today prepared to join the expedition in Mexico.

A large portion of the 2,300 reinforcements mobilized late week received their marching orders, including a regiment of cavalry and one battalion of infantry.

Healthy Old Age Brings Happiness

Simple Remedy Promotes Health By Overcoming Tendency to Constipation

Advancing years impair the action of the vital organs. Old age should be the period of greatest happiness, but good health is necessary. Constipation should not be tolerated—it is often the direct cause of ill health.

Headache, belching, biliousness, flat, drowsiness after eating and other symptoms of constipation can be readily relieved by the use of a simple laxative compound, sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Mr. J. H. Bristol, 1412 Geddes Ave., Ann Arbor, Mich., who is 83 years old, says "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best remedy I ever used for constipation and I always have a bottle of it in the house to use when I feel the need of it; it never disappoints."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a mild laxative preparation, positive in its effect, acting easily and naturally without griping or other pain or discomfort. For over a quarter of a century it has been the standard

IMPROVEMENTS IN SPARTA NUMEROUS

Additions to Asylum and Poor Farm Rapidly Going Up; Many Homes Are Being Erected

GOLF CLUB NOW "COUNTRY CLUB"

Members Change Name and Plan to Lease Big Tract; to Be Center of Activities This Summer

SPARTA, Wis., April 28.—(Special).—Much improvement in the way of new buildings is going on in the city.

The addition to the asylum and the central power plant at the poor farm, costing in the neighborhood of $45,000, is well under way; the work being in charge of the Naset Brothers of the Sparta Sash and Door company.

The foundation for the addition to the asylum is about completed. This new part will contain the cold storage house, and sleeping rooms. The central power plant will contain the heating and power plant for the institution and a modern laundry.

Other buildings in progress of construction are a new thoroughly modern brick home for W. T. Jefferson; a new house for Mrs. T. O. Thorbus on Spring street, across from the North park; a modern residence for Mrs. Henry Wagner on the old Ramsey lot on Franklin street.

Henry Selke is building on the corner of North Water and Grove streets. Ed Clough and mother are building on East Oak street.

A. H. Dammon is remodeling his large barn, used as a garage, into a house for rent. John Davis is building a fine new residence on Benton street.

Brom Builds Home Harry Brom is erecting a home on Kent street. Harry Kurtzman is to remodel their home.

E. A. Cordes is remodeling the Dr. Miligan home.

Mrs. Boyington is adding improvements to her home as is Lee Canfield.

In the First ward the houses of Ernest Schmalz, Ethan Barnes and Frank Hammon are nearing completion.

A new porch with brick columns is being added to the main building at the state school.

Spradling Called Away Mr. James Spradling, editor of the Monroe County Democrat, was called to Kendall by the sickness and death of his sister, Mrs. James E. Dwyer. She passed away April 26, death resulting from peritonitis. The funeral was held Thursday morning at the Catholic church at Kendall, and burial was in the cemetery at that place.

Mrs. Johnson's Obituary Mrs. Agatha Johnson, wife of Lorenz Johnson, who passed away at her home in this city last week, was born in Waystra, Schleswig, Prussia, in 1847, and was there married.

They came to America in 1847, and settled in Sparta, which has been their home since. Her husband and nine children survive her. They are Henry of Cataract; John C. of Sparta; Mrs. J. E. Golf Club Renamed The golf club recently organized here will hereafter be known as "The Country Club."

At a meeting Wednesday night plans were discussed to lease the Sullivan property of about twenty acres near the creamery and fronting on Perch lake, and erecting there a club house, near the lake, and the laying out of the course and a drive. If this is done, as seems practically certain, the place will probably be the center of social doings the coming season.

Cemetery Improvements Improvements are in progress at Woodlawn cemetery under the direction of Henry Selke, caretaker at the cemetery, and Highway Commissioner Johnson. A circular stone driveway is being built around the Cheney mausoleum, facing Benton street, in the new addition. A macadam driveway is being put in from the entrance on North Water street to join this circular driveway, and extending south to Benton street.

MOTHER OF FOUR CHILDREN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her Well and Strong.

Lincoln, Illinois.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for ten years with good results and I have four healthy children. This summer I was in a very run down condition and the very hot weather seemed more than I could stand, but I commenced taking your Compound in June and from then until September 25th, when my last baby was born, I got along much better than I had before. My baby was a girl and weighed 14 pounds at birth, and I recovered very rapidly which I am sure was due to your medicine. I am well and strong now, nurse my baby and do all my work. I had the same good results with your medicine when needed before my other children came and they are all healthy. My mother has taken your medicine with great satisfaction. She had her last child when nearly 44 years old and feels confident she never would have carried him through without your help, as her health was very poor."—Mrs. T. F. CLOYD, 1355 North Gulick Ave., Decatur, Ill.

Espectant mothers should profit by Mrs. Cloyd's experience, and trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Thin Men and Women Here's a Safe and Easy Way by Which You May Gain 10 Pounds or More of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. A splendid way of working to overcome this sinful waste of flesh building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to try Sargol, the famous flesh building agent that has been so widely sold in America in recent years. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and see if your cheeks don't quickly fill out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh form over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point. Hoescher Bros. and other good druggists have Sargol or can get it from their wholesaler, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces as stated on the guarantee in each large package. It is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient.

NOTE:—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.

La Follette's Victory Clear Mandate of Republican Voters in Favor of the Senator

MADISON, Wis., April 28.—(Special).—That every republican delegate in Wisconsin to the national republican convention is instructed by the people to vote for Senator Robert M. La Follette for president is the statement of Charles H. Crownhart, in a leading editorial in La Follette's Magazine.

The hearing of the article in bold type gives the following vote: "Robert M. La Follette, 110,964; Emanuel Luigi Philipp, 79,813."

"La Follette won; Philipp lost," continues the article. "This is a clear and imperative mandate of the republican voters of Wisconsin. The choice of the voters has been expressed in this election. And it is overwhelmingly in favor of the great progressive leader. Out of about 140,000 votes cast for delegates to the republican national convention, 110,964 were cast for La Follette for presidential nominee. La Follette carried every district in the state."

"Do the standpatters insist that a progressive victory, before being heralded as a victory, must be unanimous?"

"In the executive reception rooms in our magnificent new capitol, where Gov. Philipp sits in state, is inscribed in bold script, this legend: 'The will of the people shall be the law of the land.' Philipp is a delegate to the national convention. As a delegate he is instructed by the people to vote for La Follette. Will he do so?"

Senator La Follette has two signed editorials. One is a defense of the appointment of Louis D. Brandeis to the United States supreme court and the other is on "An Eight Hour Day for Trainmen."

In the Brandeis editorial he criticizes Senator Cummins of Iowa for taking a position in opposition to Brandeis and discusses Cummins' report on the matter claiming that it is untenable.

"It will be difficult for the thoughtful, progressive citizenship of the country, who know Brandeis' clean life, his pre-eminent fitness for the supreme court and his great work for humanity to accept Senator Cummins' strained reasoning and unjust conclusions," says Senator La Follette. "One and all they will forever regret his course."

The Doctor's Advice

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply in any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-Ellwood Sts., Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious name will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of Wholesaler.

find something that would overcome your rheumatism, for you can be relieved if you will take what I tell you. Get from the drug store: Iodide of potassium, 2 drams; sodium salicylate, 4 drams; wine of colchicum, 1/2 oz.; comp. fluid balmwort, 1 oz.; comp. essence cardiol, 1 oz.; and syrup sarsaparilla, 5 ozs. Mix and take a teaspoonful at mealtime and again before going to bed.

C. L. asks: "I have tried to cure dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair and baldness with numerous tonics, etc., but in vain. What do you recommend?"

Answer: I have been recommending plain yellow minyol for the past seven years and scores of my patients are delighted with the quick, pleasant action of this remedy in stopping itching, falling hair, dandruff, etc. It gives the hair health, lustre and vigor as nothing else does. Obtain in 4-oz. jars with full directions.

H. M. B. writes: "Can you please prescribe medicine which will relieve me of such distressing symptoms of kidney and bladder, as the following: Pains in small of back, soreness in region of bladder, frequent calls at night but scanty flow with pain, burning and foul odor, puffing of limbs, etc."

Answer: Those seeking relief from kidney and bladder disorders should begin taking balmwort tablets, a very successful formula sold in sealed tubes with full directions.

Mrs. N. B. B. asks: "I suffer from headache and constipation repidically and my blood seems too thick causing languor and tired feeling. I will thank you to prescribe for me."

Answer: Three grain sulphur tablets (not sulphur) are most effective, in relieving constipation, thinning the blood and removing the symptoms of languor, etc. I advise you to begin taking as per directions with each sealed package.

"Lee" writes: "I have tried so many remedies for rheumatism that I am almost afraid to try any more, but if you can tell me a sure remedy I will try it."

Answer: Do not be disheartened because you have not been able to

Not the envelope—but what the envelope contains—is what accounts for the wonderfully successful sale of WIRTHMOR Waists everywhere.

These four new charming styles in Wirthmor Waists go on sale tomorrow. As always they're just $1 and as always they're exclusive models, and could not be bought elsewhere at any price.

Unless the envelope is stamped Wirthmor the waist the envelope contains is not a Wirthmor. And remember this, that Wirthmor Waists, in this city, are sold in just this one store.

It's true that Wirthmor Waists are (and have been from their very inception years ago) packed in sanitary transparent envelopes. It's not, however, the method of packing that's responsible for their wonderfully successful sale—but the extreme desirability of the waists themselves. Wirthmor Waists are always neat, simple, refined in style—and so made as to insure lasting satisfaction.

Special Undermuslin Sale—Do not neglect buying your muslin underwear tomorrow, during this special sale. It's to your advantage. All garments sold at a special reduced price. Call and ask about it.—Second Floor.

THIS SHOWS WHAT TWO NATIONS CAN DO IF THEY AGREE TO DISARMAMENT

(Today is the 99th anniversary of the agreement between the U. S. and Canada to abolish heavy armament on the border.)

It was just 99 years ago that two men, sitting in Washington, earnestly trying to benefit the people who inhabit the American continent, agreed to the disarmament of the border between the United States and Canada. A memorable document was then and there written which may serve as a model in the great peace treaties which must inevitably be signed by the European powers. This being the 99th anniversary of the agreement, we are reproducing an article written by Elbert Hubbard in 1908.

The coast line between Canada and the United States, from the St. Lawrence river to Lake Superior, is about 2,000 miles. In the year 1812 there were forty-six forts, big and little, on the United States side, and about the same number frowned at us from Canada.

At Fort Niagara alone there were at one time 6,000 troops. Altogether we had on the Great Lakes over a hundred craft devoted to the art of fighting—in this in the interest of peace.

In one little battle we had with our British cousins, on Lake Erie, Commodore Perry, a rash youth of 27, captured six British ships and killed 300 men. A little before this the British destroyed ten ships for us and killed 200 Americans.

After the war of 1812 was ended and peace was declared, both sides got busy, very busy, strengthening the forts and building warships. At Watertown, Conneaut, Erie, Port Huron, Cleveland and Detroit were shipyards where hundreds of men were working night and day building warships. Not that war was imminent, but the statement of the time said there was nothing like "preparedness". In Canada things were much the same, and there were threats that Perry's famous message, "We have met the enemy and they are ours", would soon be reversed.

Suddenly, but very quietly, two men in Washington got together and made an agreement. One man was Acting Secretary of State Richard Rush of Philadelphia. The other was Charles Bagot, minister to the United States from England. Rush was of Quaker parentage, and, naturally, was opposed to the business of war.

Bagot had seen enough of fighting to know that it was neither glorious nor amusing. Rush wrote out a memorandum of agreement which he headed "An Arrangement." The document is written on one side of a single sheet of paper, and is dated April 28, 1817. Here is a copy:

1. The naval forces henceforth to be maintained upon the Great Lakes shall be confined to the following vessels on each side:

2. On Lake Ontario one vessel, not to exceed 100 tons burden, carrying not more than twenty-five men and one 18-pound cannon.

3. On the upper lakes two vessels of same burden and armed in a like way.

4. On Lake Champlain one vessel of like size and armament.

5. All other armed vessels to be at once dismantled, and no other vessel of war shall be built or armed along the St. Lawrence river or the Great Lakes.

This agreement has been religiously kept for ninety-one (now 99) years. Its effect was to stop work at once on the fortifications, and cause disarmament along the coast lakes. So far as we know, the agreement will continue for all time. Both parties are satisfied, and in fact, so naturally has it been accepted, very few people know of its existence.

Fear, greed and vanity are the three things that stand in the way of disarmament. But the thinking people of the world are beginning to see the perpetuity of the race demands the abolition of war.

The absurdity of avowed violence between nations that clamorously proclaim themselves "Christians" is too evident to discuss. If two countries can make "an arrangement" limiting the matter of armament, and this arrangement holds for a hundred years, can not nine countries do the same? All that is needed is a few soldiers to do police duty.

Nations can not afford to be savages any more than individuals.

SPURNED WIFE IS KILLED BY FRIEND OF HER HUSBAND

NEW YORK, April 28.—In order that Joseph Castell might be free of his wife, who would not divorce him, Frank Veteri lured Mrs. Castell to New Haven and pounded her to death with an iron bar while Castell li, who had followed secretly, looked on. All involved in the unusual crime are deaf mutes.

Veteri killed Mrs. Castell because of his friendship for her husband and for a slight financial gain, the police say.

The men are in jail here and both confessed.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

ARREST GERMAN BELIEVE HE HAS PANAMA EVIDENCE

NEW YORK, April 28.—Konrad W. Aufwasser, a young German reservist, was detained temporarily by United States secret service operatives yesterday, apparently because of a tip that he might have collected secrets of the Panama canal defenses.

Later, when examination failed to reveal any papers showing military secrets, the man was released. Secret service agents also looked up a passenger to whom Aufwasser handed some papers on the way here from Colon, but found the "papers" were merely of a personal nature.

Revolution in Labor and Economic Conditions the Probable Results of the Struggle

BY CHAS. P. STEWART

(United Press Staff Correspondent.) LONDON, March 12.—(By mail.)—Europe will have to do one of two things after the war:

1. Accept a far lower standard of living than heretofore, or,
2. Cancel all war debts and start afresh with a clean slate.

It is impossible to calculate, for instance, what England's war debt alone will be, because nobody knows how much longer the war will last. Certainly, however, the figure will be so enormous as to stagger the imagination.

Even if the struggle should end before 1917 the English would have to pay annually, in interest, more than the total of their government's yearly ante-bellum expenses.

Taxation was high before the war. How is the country going to stand a burden more than twice as heavy?

For one thing, economists say, production will have to be greatly increased.

This, they expect, will be accomplished by the use of improved machinery, by a higher degree of efficiency than in the past and by the employment of great numbers of women who were not industrial factors before the war broke out.

These economists themselves, however, do not pretend the difference will be made up thus. Taxes must be much heavier to cover the deficit.

The only conclusion is that industrial England will be compelled to work more than twice as hard as before the war, for less pay.

Possibly because they are themselves heavy investors in the allies' war loans, the English propertied classes, even the small fry, generally strongly oppose a wiping out of the war indebtedness and insist that whatever new and harder conditions may come, should be accepted cheerfully.

But will they? Apparently there is considerable room for doubt.

The creditor element, though influential, is in a hopeless minority, of course.

There are plenty of hints that the majority will not respond enthusiastically to the suggestion that the masses accept, after the war, even shorter commons than they had to make the best of before the war's outbreak.

It is fair to say that some enlightened liberals, including a number of men who have subscribed liberally to the war loans, are disposed at least to consider the idea of canceling these obligations.

They do not use the word "repudiation." They say the country's foreign indebtedness, which, however, is small compared with what Englishmen have loaned to their own government, must be paid. But it may prove expedient, they admit, to regard loans made to the national war chest by the English themselves as contributions from those best able to afford them.

Some take the position that England's loans to her allies should similarly be wiped out.

Adoption of such a scheme obviously would mean the unique situation of a war burden falling on the rich instead of the poor.

At the same time that it would mean a heavy loss for the "classes" it would also mean a gain for the "masses," a leveling-up process historically unprecedented.

Higher taxes!

to $11 weekly. The corresponding workman in Germany made from $6 to $7.

For a man with a family it might seem as if these figures were pretty near bed rock, that he couldn't reduce his standard of living without starving to death.

As a matter of fact, the workers in Spain, Portugal, Russia and Turkey were not so well off as the English and Germans; and a coolie's wages in China amount to about 70 cents American money, for a seven-day week.

So, after all, there is a good deal of room for European labor to be worse off after that it was before the war.

The creditor classes' suggestion of "a lower standard of living" isn't by any means an impossibility, if the producing classes will submit to it. Will they? Nobody knows yet.

Predicts Land Reforms
In England, land reform appears to be a certainty.

It is not contended that the British Isles would support their population, agriculturally, except perhaps with the closest pinching. It is maintained, however, that a just distribution of land would check the tendency toward such an intense concentration in the cities, with its consequent disorganization of the labor market and frightful conditions of unemployment which characterized ante-bellum days.

It is an old complaint that, with millions of the English on the verge of starvation, huge areas of land have been held as game preserves and parks, in as primitive a state of uncultivation as at the time of the Norman conquest.

Still other vast tracts have been farmed only by tenants who, while doing all the work, were allowed only the most meager livelihoods, that the landlords might get the lion's share of the country's products by virtue of nothing but their monopoly.

In the cities, conditions have been and still are the same as in the country, with only such variations as necessarily go with urban life.

All this, it is generally agreed, will have to be changed with the soldier's return home at the war's end. It is recognized that hundreds of thousands of men who have had a taste of a broader existence than the old one, will not tolerate a return to the former order of things.

The suggestion most frequently heard is that the landlords will be forced to dispose of their great holdings at reasonable prices, on some such basis as the one already prevailing in Ireland. Others favor a more or less close approximation to the single tax.

Taking into account the relief this will affect in labor congestion in the industrial centers, and the fact that there undoubtedly will be a heavy emigration to the colonies, it seems fair to predict an immense betterment in the masses' lot in Postbellum England.

End of Free Trade
England inevitably will cease to be a free trade country after the war.

Reciprocity will prevail between the mother country and her colonies, it may include all the present allies.

The tariff's purpose will be, partly, revenue. More particularly it will be for protection against Germany.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years, and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

The English policy is not, in general, for protection against neutrals, but it is hard to see how it can be avoided in this case, as Germans might otherwise establish their factories in neutral countries, get their raw material from home and set the protection program at naught.

Already plans are under discussion for preventing the employing class from getting the benefit, to the workers' disadvantage, of the higher prices it is expected this tariff will mean.

Suggests Minimum Wage
One suggestion is for a minimum wage. This is not very generally favored, however. Its opponents say it is too inelastic a method to work satisfactorily. It is unlikely it will be adopted.

Another proposition looks toward a profit sharing system, so scientifically worked out that price increases will automatically mean correspondingly larger incomes for workmen.

A still more radical scheme contemplates government control, or even government ownership of all manufacturing industries. Inasmuch as the tariff will have to be imposed with labor's consent and aid, there is no question that labor's interests will have to be duly considered. Indications are that the result's form may be more or less socialistic.

Internal Changes to Result
It is a pretty safe prediction that the war is going to be followed by important internal changes in most, if not all the belligerent countries.

Perhaps these changes will be for the worse. Obviously there is far less liberty in belligerent and even in neutral Europe today than there was before the war. If this condition should become chronic, of course the war's result can be set down as entirely bad.

If plutocracy succeeds in getting a still tighter stranglehold on the people than it had before, things will be all the worse.

The people seem to realize this, however, and are pretty watchful.

So it looks as if the odds favor changes in the line of improvement, a big improvement and soon, at least in spots.

Are revolutions likely? Peaceful economic revolutions?—Yes, very likely indeed.

But an overturning of governments? Of some, maybe; not all.

There is hardly a suggestion of such a thing in England. The situation is said to be the same in France.

British officials believe that a complete governmental overturning is a distinct possibility in the case of the central powers, perhaps so soon as to shorten the war. The Italian government's position was notoriously precarious long before the war began. There is no reason for believing it is less so today.

Curiously enough, the Russian regime, supposedly the most unpopular with the people of any in Europe, appears to have been enormously strengthened by the world struggle. All accounts indicate its entire safety for the present, though there is a general belief that its post-bellum methods largely with the ruling class' approval, will be greatly liberalized.

Exception in This Case.

FUN" FUN" FUN" IN EAGLE'S SHOW

"Laugh and the world laughs with you" is an old saying and if as is often said, it is the real method for getting fat, then the opportunity will be presented to those who attend the funny musical comedy, "Follies of a Bachelor," given by the Eagles' lodge, at the Majestic theater, May 4, 5 and 6. The plot in this production revolves around the efforts of a New York bachelor, to get some one to play the part of his wife for the day, during which time the trustee of his inheritance is to call and lecture her on her extravagance. The bachelor has assumed for some time that he was married so that he might draw the annual allowance, left him by a deceased aunt, and writes his trustee that owing to his wife's extravagance he is in need of more money. The valet is instructed to try and get some one to play the part of a wife and unknown to the master of the house succeeds in doing so, while the latter in the meantime has also secured some one for the part. This superabundance of wives as a climax of the first act makes a complex and ludicrous situation for the bachelor. The second act brings out the fact that he has also assumed that there was a baby in the family and when the trustee insists on seeing it, a hurried scramble is made to beg, buy or steal a baby for the occasion. The assumed wife takes the washerwoman's baby without her consent or knowledge which complicates the situation, by putting both in a position of being arrested on a charge of kidnapping and an effort is made to hide the baby, but through force of circumstances, the secret is found out and by a humble confession of the bachelor and a generous spirit of forgiveness by the trustee the act closes with "All's well that ends well." The many tuneful and pleasing musical numbers that are fitted into the plot at different intervals, and ably sung and acted by a winsome chorus and a group of Broadway show girls and boys, makes this musical comedy compare favorably with the high price metropolitan attractions.

TONIGHT CLOSSES SIXTH EXHIBIT OF ART SOCIETY

Tonight is the last chance for local people to examine the notable collection of paintings forming the latest exhibit of the La Crosse Art association. The exhibit was open this afternoon and will remain on view until 9 o'clock this evening.

The present exhibit is the sixth held by the local art society in its year of existence, the success of which was attested by reports read at the annual meeting Wednesday. At that time the following directors were elected:

Mrs. L. F. Easton, Mrs. G. Van Steenwyk, Dr. Edward Evans, Dr. Adolph Gunderson, L. C. Colman, Walter Tillman, J. M. McConnell, C. A. Loveland, Mrs. Alonzo A. Chubb, Mrs. Lillian Finch, Otto Ehlbach, Miss Martha Heidemann, Miss Gertrude Hogan, Rev. W. J. Peacock, Mrs. Andrew Lees, Mrs. R. B. Gelatt, Frank P. Hixon and O. J. Oyen.

RACINE EDITOR CALLS CONVENTION OF PROGRESSIVES

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 28.—Indications that a convention of progressive republicans in Wisconsin may be called within the next few weeks, were growing today. The movement was started by W. S. Goodland, editor of the Racine Times-Call, who has sent out letters to many of the progressive leaders in the state urging that a meeting be called shortly.

Women Save $5 Using Gasoline

Says it is so easy to dry clean and nothing shrinks, fades or wrinkles.

Save $5 to $10 by doing your own dry cleaning. Here is a simple and inexpensive way to clean and brighten children's coats, suits, caps, woolen garments, Swiss, lawn, organdie and chiffon dresses, kid gloves and shoes, furs, neckties, ribbons, silks, satins, lace, yokes, silk shirtwaists, draperies, rugs, in fact, any and everything that would be ruined with soap and water.

Get two ounces of solvite at any drug store and put it in two gallons of gasoline, where it readily dissolves. Then put in the goods to be cleaned. After a little rubbing out they come looking as clean and fresh as new. You will find nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles, requiring no pressing.

Any woman can do home dry cleaning in a few moments at little cost and save lots of money. It is as simple and easy as laundering, and you can't make a mistake. Your grocer or any garage will supply the gasoline, and your druggist will sell you two ounces of solvite which is simply a gasoline soap. Then a wash boiler or large dishpan completes your home dry cleaning outfit. As gasoline is very inflammable, be sure to do your dry cleaning out of doors or in a room away from fire or flame, with the windows left open.

NO FAULT FOUND IN BRITISH ORDERS TO ARMED OCEAN SHIPS

WASHINGTON, April 28.—British Ambassador Spring-Rice called on Secretary Lansing today and presented him with an official copy of the so-called secret British admiralty orders to captains of armed merchant vessels. The copy delivered is dated October 20, 1915, a revision of earlier orders and is identical with the text given the London press by the British foreign office some weeks ago.

The orders, it was said, after the ambassador's visit, show that ships are to use their armament defensively; that no penalties have been provided for violation of orders, nor any prize offered for attacking submarines. On the orders submitted today for inspection it was said the United States could not warn Americans off such ships.

COMPANY DEMANDS RETURN OF SALARY SAYS KEELER TOOK

Stockholders of the La Crosse Land company today brought suit in circuit court here for the recovery of $2,000, which they allege in their complaint was appropriated by Benjamin F. Keeler, secretary and treasurer of the real estate concern.

The complainants are William Doerflinger, V. S. Keppel, A. W. Langenbach, G. J. Egan, Edward Lyons and C. B. Noelke. The complaint states that these men now hold one-half of the outstanding capital stock of the company.

Mr. Keeler, it is understood, took the sum of $2,000 for his personal services as active head of the concern and before doing so presented a bill to the directors, who declare that according to the bylaws of the company, no director or officer is entitled to remuneration.

EAGLES PLAN BIG EVENTS

Two events that are foremost in the minds of the members of the local lodge of Eagles are the state convention at Grand Rapids in June and the big musical comedy "Follies of a Bachelor" that will be shown at the Majestic May 4, 5 and 6. The proceeds of which will be used to equip the drill team and to send a large delegation with a band to the convention to reciprocate for the fine showing made by the statearies at last year's convention, held in La Crosse. A sentiment is being formulated among the officers and members of the lodge to have the delegation sent from here, represent the city of La Crosse, as a progressive jobbing and manufacturing center, therefore extra efforts are being made to raise the necessary funds, to send a large contingent of active boosters. Reservations of seats for the big show will begin Monday, May 1st and with the number of tickets sent to a large membership, together with the advance sale, the committee expects to sell out the seating capacity for the three nights, before the day of the show.

MEXICAN MISSING FOR FIVE DAYS POLICE SEARCH

Police were this afternoon asked to start a search for Joseph Tadnez, Mexican laborer, who has been missing from his boarding place on the north side for five days. Tadnez had been employed at the Burlington Grand Crossing yards. He was living at 1819 Onalaska avenue.

The missing laborer was released the first of the week from a local hospital, where he had been undergoing treatment for tuberculosis of a toe. After his release he went to the north side but has been missing since.

DEATH ENDS TALK BETWEEN AGED MAN AND WIFE TODAY

A sudden attack of heart disease is believed to have caused the death of Dennis Bergen, 83, while seated in his arm chair at his home, 1221 Denton street, at 9 o'clock this morning. Mr. Bergen was apparently in the best of health, and was in the midst of a conversation with his wife, when he suddenly fell silent. Mrs. Bergen looked about to find him dead.

Mr. Bergen came to La Crosse from Ireland four years ago. He is survived by his widow, a daughter Mary, and three sons, Lee, John and Joseph.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

STORANDT'S MOTHER LONG A RESIDENT CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. John Storandt, aged 70, a resident of La Crosse for forty-two years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Oberlander, 810 South Fourth street, at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Heart disease was the cause of death. She was the mother of Alderman C. F. Storandt.

Mrs. Storandt was born in Germany. She came to America forty-eight years ago and after spending six years in the east came west to La Crosse, where she has resided ever since. Surviving are Mrs. Oberlander, Alderman Storandt and six grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the residence, and 2:30 from the German Reformed church. Rev. Vornholt will officiate. Burial will be made in Oak Grove cemetery.

Vag Lets Chief Into Mystery Of "Dog-Whelp"

Edward Reise, a vagrant, sprung a new one on Chief of Police John B. Webber when he was being searched at Central station yesterday. The officer making the frisk dragged from Reise's pocket a heavy woolen sock with a rock in the toe.

"What's this?" demanded the chief sternly, wondering if it was a new kind of slung-shot.

"Oh, that's a dog-whelp," said Reise.

He explained to the mystified official that it is carried loosely in the hand when approaching back doors for handouts. At the approach of the family watchdog, the "whelp" is swung on Fido's "roof" as Reise phrased it, for defense of calves and trouser-bottoms.

SCRAP PAPER RATE TO TWIN CITIES CUT BY A THIRD

Scrap-paper rates from La Crosse to the Twin cities are reduced a third in a new tariff received by the La Crosse Shippers' association today. The new rate is eight cents a hundred pounds. At present paper shippers are paying twelve cents. The rate goes into effect June 1. C. J. Bolton, commissioner of the association, said that the rate was established following a complaint made by the association to the carriers on behalf of several of their clients. There is a considerable movement of paper scrap from La Crosse to Minneapolis and St. Paul.

GERMAN AEROPLANES DROP BOMBS ON RUSSIAN WARSHIP

BERLIN, April 28.—Three German atropianes yesterday dropped bombs upon the Russian battleship Slava. The admiralty announced this afternoon that several hits were distinctly observed and that fires broke out. All the aeroplanes returned safely despite heavy shell fire.

The Slava, a 13,516 ton battleship, was a sister ship of the Imperator Alexander III. Borodino and Knyaz Suvorov, which were sunk in the battle of the sea of Japan on May 27, 1905. Another ship of the same class was captured the next day by the Japanese.

S. S. S. Removes the Cause.

Specialists in Catarrh troubles have agreed that it is an infection of the blood. The laboratories of the S. S. S. Co. at Atlanta, have proven it. Once you get your blood free from impurities—cleansed of the Catarrh—it is not necessary. The remedy, S. S. S., discovered over fifty years ago, tested, true and tried, is always obtainable at any drug-store. It has proven its value in thousands of cases. It will do so in your case. Get S. S. S. at once and begin treatment. If yours is a long-standing case, be sure to write the Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga. for free expert medical advice. They will tell you how this purely vegetable blood tonic cleanses the impurities from the blood by literally washing it clean. They will prove to you that thousands of sufferers from Catarrh after consistent treatment with S. S. S. have been freed from the trouble and all its disagreeable features and restored to health and vigor. Don't delay the treatment. Take S. S. S. at once.

GALESVILLE CLUB MEMBERS GIVE A FAREWELL PARTY

GALESVILLE, Wis., April 28.—(Special.)—Wednesday evening the "Knights of the Long Table club" gave a dancing party in their club room in the Jensen building, the occasion being a farewell to Earl Jensen, who will soon leave for Merrillan.

This club was started some time ago with the help of Principal Anderson and Professor Dahl of the high school, and was for the purpose of "promoting good fellowship and to afford a suitable place for friendly meetings of the boys at all times," as their constitution says. About twenty boys organized and elected the regular officers. Club rooms were nicely fixed up, by the help of some of the prominent business men, and

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription ointment—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots. Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion. Be sure to ask for the double strength ointment as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

furnished a fine place for the fellows to gather. It is really a miniature Y. M. C. A. organization.

Alumni Elects

Last Friday evening the alumni of the Galesville high school met in the school building, and made preparations for the coming alumni ball. The following officers were elected: President—Edith Bartlett. Vice president—Millie Sagen. Secretary—Alma Swenson. Treasurer—J. A. Hammer.

Commission Meets

The Galesville Park commission met last Thursday evening for organization. J. E. Cance was elected president; and O. D. Witterbee, secretary. The committee will start soon in the work of trimming shade trees along the sidewalk and the cleaning of the several parks.

Local and Personal

Several Galesville people enjoyed the dance in the Trempealeau hall last Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Arnold are entertaining a fishing party from La Crosse at their home this week.

Secretary Ben W. Davis of the Trempealeau County Agricultural society, made a trip to St. Charles last week to confer with other members of the Wisconsin-Minnesota fair circuit.

A son was born April 17 to Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson.

Dr. W. P. Mailer has returned from a trip in Iowa.

Mrs. Charles Stoner has leased the Heileman building on Main street, which has been used for the restaurant of Otto Olson for the past year and has set up her bakery shop in the same. The building has been nicely fixed up in the front part, and meals will be served at all times.

Born, April 22, to Mr. and Mrs. John Blekken, a daughter.

Peter Renvig and family have removed to their summer home on the Lake Road.

Miss Esther Dahl is in the La Crosse hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. E. Perring is recovering from an attack of grippe.

Mrs. Charles has been very sick with the measles. A trained nurse was called.

O. W. Kilmer and family of Baraboo, spent the week at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kilmer.

The Halderson & Plummer Co. demonstrated their Diamond Disc Edison phonograph at the Marinuka theater at the show last Thursday evening.

The large new barn of Leonard Stelplag was dedicated last Friday night when a large dance was given there.

Chris Dettinger, who has been the proprietor of the Cliff House for several months, has rented the Husa building on Allan street, and will open a restaurant there.

The optimist generates a lot of hope that never comes out.

NEURALGIA'S ONE SYMPTOM

Neuralgia is a disease which has but one symptom—pain.

The pain of neuralgia is sharp and shooting with intervals of freedom.

An attack of neuralgia does not give immunity but recurrences are the rule. The same nerve is generally affected, which means that this particular nerve has lost its resistance and that there will be recurring attacks until the strength of the nerve is built up.

How can the strength of a nerve be restored? The nerves are nourished entirely by the blood and weak nerves are toned up by supplying to the blood the elements that the nerves lack. As the general health and strength of the patient are built up the nerves resume their normal functions, inflammation caused by lack of nutrition disappears and the neuralgic attacks cease.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic exceptionally well suited for the treatment of neuralgia because they contain no alcohol, stimulating or habit-forming drugs. The tonic treatment with these pills is well worth a trial by any sufferer from neuralgia.

Write today for booklet on nervous disorders to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells the pills or they will be sent postpaid at 50 cents per box.

HIGH STUDENTS OF TOMAH GIVE ANNUAL JUNIOR PROM EVENT

TOMAH, Wis., April 28.—(Special.)—High school students held their annual Junior Prom on Friday evening, and it was a decided success. The students used the two halls this year—McCaul's hall for the dancing and Earle's hall for refreshments.

McCaul's hall was decorated with festoons of crepe paper in lavender and gold, the Senior colors. Punch was served from a charming nook banked with evergreen boughs. The small room in the rear was decorated with the Junior colors—purple and white. Dancing was indulged in from eight to ten, when the partners were chosen for the Grand March. The March was formed from McCaul's hall into the adjoining one—Earle's.

This was decorated with the pines, and a sky formed overhead of cheesecloth, covered with stars. Refreshments were served and the following toasts given:

Toastmaster—E. T. O'Brien. "A lecture on Botany." The Bark—F. M. Bray. The Cambium Layer—Marguerite Nuzum.

The Sap—L. R. Watson. The Heart—I. R. Witthuhn. The Annual Rings—Lucile Kyle. The Presentation of the Mill—Stanley Butts.

The Acceptance of the Mill—Arthur Wegner.

Junior Officers

The officers of the Junior class are as follows: President—Arthur Wegner. Vice-president—Mildred Skinner. Secretary—Robert Bentzen. Prom Chairman—Royal Kilmer. The music for the dance was furnished by the Boyze orchestra.

JOURNEY OVER IRON RANGE TO BE PART OF MISSION MEET

Rev. Finch A. Clarke on the Committee Which Will Investigate Conditions in Iron Range

A journey through the Gogebic iron range and a trip through one of the great iron mines of Michigan will be made by Rev. Finch A. Clarke of the North Presbyterian church, a member of the home missions committee of the Wisconsin Presbyterian synod, who leaves Monday for Ironwood, Mich., where a meeting of the committee will be held. The other members of the committee from the La Crosse presbytery, Rev. D. C. Jones and W. W. Walker of the First church, will not attend. The meeting will be held in the new St. James hotel there.

The convention is being held in Ironwood, which is the center of the iron range including Hurley, Wis., and Bessemer, Mich., that a thorough investigation of the conditions among foreign miners on the range may be made. The committee recently extended their work to that region, which comes under the jurisdiction of the Wisconsin synod because of its remoteness from the headquarters of the Michigan synod.

Sleepy Citizen Summons Cop To Rescue Treed Cat

Chasing burglars and feeding vagrants does not compromise the duty of policemen on the north side, according to Patrolman Mike Britton today, following a call on a recent evening from an Avon street household.

"Say," said the Avon street-er, "a dog chased a cat up in a tree in my front yard an hour or so ago and the cat's making so much noise I can't sleep. C'mon up and get it down."

Mike went. But he is of portly form and not so good as he used to be at climbing trees. He hired a small boy of the neighborhood to swarm the trunk and rescue kitty.

MARIE SCHAEITTE IN PROGRAM AT NORMAL SCHOOL

Local Girl to Give Dramatic Reading Under Buskin Club—Auspices Tomorrow Evening

Miss Marie Schaeitte, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Schaeitte, 118 North Sixteenth street, who is home from Chicago for a few days' visit with her parents, and her guest, Miss Rowena Galey, will give a dramatic and musical program at the normal school at fifteen minutes past eight Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Buskin club of the normal. No admission will be charged, and neither have any special invitations been issued, but all friends of Miss Schaeitte and of the Buskin club are cordially invited to be present.

Miss Schaeitte is a dramatic reader and Miss Galey a pianist. Both have studied in Chicago under the ablest teachers for the past three years and within the past year have appeared before numerous church societies and clubs in that city. Wednesday evening they presented their program at the theater in Spooner, Wis. The following program will be given:

Tarantelle, Mac Dowell. Pan's Flute, Godard. Scherzo Valse, Motzkowski, Miss Galey. Intermission. Allegro from "Carnival Jests from Vienna", Schumann, Miss Galey. "Everyman", a morality play, Miss Schaeitte.

BBY TEA TOMORROW

Arrangements are now complete for the Baby Week Tea to be held at the La Crosse club rooms from three to five o'clock tomorrow afternoon for the purpose of raising funds with which to carry on the Better Babies campaign to be waged here during the week of May the 15th, and today the committees are making a final appeal to the women of La Crosse, and the men, too, to attend this tea and thus lend their moral, as well as financial, support to the campaign, the purposes of which are stated to be "better babies, better mothers, better homes and a better community." The committee in charge, consisting of representatives of the Twentieth Century club, La Crosse Woman's club and the Catholic League of Women, is as follows: Mesdames George R. Reay, Arthur A. Bentley, Ralph H. Herbert, Olaf R. Skaar, Christian L. Lien, Eugene G. Perkins, Edward Evans, John F. Doherty, Carl Noelke, John L. Callahan and James A. Fairchild, and the Misses Devine and Spettel. These ladies will be official hostesses at the tea.

SALE A SUCCESS

Gratifying success attended the sale and supper given in the parlors of the church by the ladies of the North Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon and evening. The affair was called a "White Sale," and articles in white, consisting of aprons, caps, lingerie, etc., were offered for sale. Approximately two hundred people partook of the excellent supper provided by the ladies. The ladies in charge of the affair were as follows:

Dining room—Mrs. Guy Atkinson. Booths—Mesdames Robert Gifford, W. D. Freeman, P. J. Hadgraft and Finch A. Clarke. Kitchen—Mrs. C. L. Larson. Candy booth—Miss Vera Higbee.

BLUEBELL CARD CLUB

After an interval of two weeks during which the club did not meet, the members of the Bluebell Card club were entertained yesterday by Mrs. Charles H. Kriese at her home, 827 Green Bay street. Besides the members of the club there were present the Mesdames H. MacBride, Ella Brabant and James Houghton. High honors were carried off by Mrs. Herman Schlicht and Mrs. Emma Schurrer and second prizes were won by Mrs. James Houghton and Mrs. Thomas Berny, while the consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. David Muench and Mrs. C. C. King.

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION

Harmony camp, No. 4121, R. N. A., will have a school of instruction tomorrow afternoon at their hall, and in the evening there will be a class adoption, at which time a large class will be initiated into the mysteries of the organization. A number of neighbors from out of the city, among them Mrs. Allie Barrett, district deputy, and Mrs. Eva Childs of the supreme board of managers, will be present and all Royal Neighbors are cordially invited to attend.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. H. S. Brock, 1136 State street, entertained a party of young boys at dinner yesterday in honor of the fourteenth birthday of her son, Walter. The guests were Donald Dumke, Kirk White, Arthur Blinston and Gilford Reser.

MACCABEES MEET TONIGHT

The Ladies of the Maccabees, New Century Hive No. 101, will hold their regular meeting at Central hall this evening. The committee in charge of arrangements consists of Miss Pearl Johnson and the Mesdames R. Higbee, L. Instenes, R. Knight, H. J. Mattox, W. Noble and B. Nottingham and Dr. Sara Nimocks.

FIVE HUNDRED PARTY

The five hundred party given by the ladies of Rowena Circle Thursday afternoon was greatly enjoyed by those present. Prizes were awarded to Mesdames Grove, Lee, Welch, Drake, Horn, Sheets, Berg and Schmall. Orangeade was served. The ladies will entertain their friends at cinch next Tuesday afternoon, and on Friday afternoon a five hundred party will be given for the ladies' degree team. The team is raising a fund to take them to the National convocation in Detroit in 1917. A large crowd is expected to be present at this party as the Yeomen are all anxious to see the girls earn the trip.

SOCIAL WELL ATTENDED

A social and sale which was exceptionally well attended was given at St. Mary's school yesterday afternoon and evening by the ladies of the church. Useful and fancy articles of various sorts were offered for sale and refreshments were served. In the evening a minstrel show was put on by the young men of the congregation. The committees in charge were as follows:

Sale—Mesdames J. J. White, J. J. Hegge, R. H. Butler and A. Rose and the Misses Julia Higgins and Mamie Kelly.

Refreshments—Mesdames J. L. Eddy, William Leske, Waters, C. Neumann, F. Webber and A. Swords and the Misses Sarah F. Allen and Anna Farrell.

Candy—Misses Edna Shirley, Marie Christian, Elizabeth Lyons, Agnes Doyle and Iva White.

League Observes Tercentenary

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 28.—The formal celebration by the Drama League of America, of the tercentenary of William Shakespeare, takes place here today, when the 300 delegates of the organization will go through an elaborate ceremony at the Shakespeare statue in Tower Grove park.

An ode to Shakespeare, written by Sara Teasdale of St. Louis, will be read by William Faversham. Short speeches by noted actors, authors and musicians will be made. A mulberry tree will be planted near the statue as a memorial of the occasion. Then folk dances of the Elizabethan period will be given by men and girls in costume. The statue will be decorated for the occasion. Following the public celebration, a reception will be tendered the delegates in the Elizabethan garden in Shaw's Gardens, with the director, Dr. George T. Moore, as official host.

Says American Women Have Poor Taste

CHICAGO, April 28.—Students and teachers of the Chicago School of Domestic Arts and Sciences were pondering today over the statement of Mrs. Genevieve P. Reid, dress expert, that the American woman's dress is a "hodge-podge." "The American woman sees a pretty hat, chic pair of shoes and a gown in a show window and right away she provides herself with them," said Mrs. Reid. "The ensemble is frightful. The average American woman has poor taste in dressing."

Mrs. Reid would remedy all this, as follows:

Red haired women should wear tan, green or yellow.

Blonds look good in anything, but it is preferable they wear pinks or tans.

Brunettes look well with a bit of facing under the hat.

Look around and see what the other woman's wearing.

Confederate Daughters Hold Dixie Ball

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—The annual Dixie ball of the Robert E. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., was held last evening at the Raleigh. Among the patronesses were Mrs. Thomas Watt Gregory, Mrs. Charles D. Carter, Mrs. South Trimble, Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, Mrs. Burleson and Miss Caroline Longfellow. On the reception committee were General Gorgas, Col. Robert E. Lee and other southern notables. The ball is one of the brilliant functions of the spring at the capital.

positions (or in some cases, three), at several different temperatures, and of an isochronism test. Every high grade watch is adjusted to run in either three or five positions, hence the necessity for this number of tests. These tests are made at a temperature of 84 degrees Fahrenheit, which is supposed to be the temperature of the watch pocket. In order to determine how heat and cold affect the instrument, it is also tested at forty-one, sixty-eight and ninety-five degrees. Finally, its isochronism, or the uniformity of its rate throughout the day is determined.

Gains by Swing

The careful testing of timepieces shows them to be very delicate instruments—much more so than the average watch owner, or even the average jeweler, imagines. For example, the experts have found that when a watch is hung on a nail or hook, unless it rests firmly against something, its own power will set it swinging which will result in its gaining from eight to 130 seconds in twenty-four hours more than it would if at rest. Now jewelers almost invariably hang up the watches brought them for repair, and this may well explain the fact that frequently the watch runs all right when the jeweler has it, but when he gives it back to you it loses.

Most watch owners hardly deserve good service in return for the treatment they give their watches. Everyone knows, of course, that it is bad for a watch to be dropped, even a short distance. In point of fact, letting a watch fall to the end of a chain or dropping your vest on a chair with the watch in the pocket may throw it off, while jumping off a street car or any other sudden motion of the person, may cause a considerable inaccuracy. If you want the exact time, you should treat your watch with the utmost consideration and comport yourself with careful dignity.

How to Treat Watch

Here are a few more directions. Keep your watch pocket clean, and if the watch crystal is cracked or broken replace it immediately. Wind your watch regularly, steadily and slowly. It will improve the working of many watches to wind them twice a day. Compare your time daily with that of some standard clock. The best way is to make a practice of passing some clock set by the government observatory every morning on your way to work and to wind and set your watch at exactly the same time each day.

Again, do not foppishly carry your watch in your upper coat pocket. It's too cold up there. Keep it in your vest pocket, close to the body in the equatorial regions, where it will get uniform heat at all times. Don't put it by the open window at night, either. It can catch cold as well as you can. Also be careful what position you put it in at night. If you are very observing, you can find out what its compensating positions are, so that by letting it stand up all day and lie on its face all night, for example, you may make it come out exactly right at the end of the twenty-four hours. If you can't find this compensating position, make the watch stand up all night, just as it does in the day.

Time Depends on Dignity
The fact of the matter is that having

FORD'S $5 A DAY NOT FOR EITHER SHIRKS OR FOOLS

Loafer and Waster Has Five Months to Redeem Himself to Get Profit Share; if He Don't He's Fired

How the famous Ford profit-sharing plan, whereby even the lowliest sweeper gets $5 a day, works in the Detroit plant and in the branch plant at Milwaukee was told to a dinner party of enthusiastic Ford dealers at the La Crosse hotel last night. A. W. L. Gilpin, manager of the Milwaukee branch, detailed all the workings of the plan at the conclusion of a vigorous talk on "Selling at Retail."

Henry Ford's idea is that the man who does his work as perfectly as possible, with a minimum of supervision necessary, deserves the chance to have a good standard of living whether he is a skilled mechanic or a porter," said Mr. Gilpin. "The Ford profit-sharing plan doesn't help shirks or fools. The man who wastes his money, or doesn't deliver the goods, finds himself cut out of the profit-sharing."

"His share, though, doesn't go back to the company. The profit-sharing at each plant is in the hands of a committee of the employees, and when a man is unworthy his share is put into our charity fund. At the end of a month, if the man has redeemed himself, it goes back into his envelope. If he has only partially made good, he gets only part of his share in the profits. If, at the end of five months, he hasn't caught the Ford spirit, he's fired."

Harry Dahl, agent for this territory, presided at the meeting. A talk on sales organization was given by C. A. Esslinger, of the Milwaukee branch, and a great deal of information and "tips" was handed out to the more than a score of agents who attended, including some advance information concerning the tractor which Ford is contemplating upon the market.

Those present included Messrs. Gilpin and Esslinger of Milwaukee; Harry Raper, Leif G. Schreiner, Henry Gilbertson, O. G. Lewis, E. M. Sullivan, Harry Dahl and Mark R. Byers, La Crosse; Chester Dahl and Aad Dahl, Westby; A. F. Anderson, Marvin Johnson, Holmen; Carl Peterson, Chaseburg; F. J. Ruland, Minn. C. Olson, De Soto; W. L. McEl-downey, West Salem; L. F. Sheppke, Sparta; C. S. Honaker, Liberty Pole; V. V. Dahl, Viroqua.

"Duffy's Excellent For Colds"

MRS. M. LIFKA

Lack of nutrition is one of the common conditions preceding coughs and colds. The value of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey in preventing and relieving coughs and colds has been established on many occasions. Mrs. Lifka has used Duffy's for years and recently wrote:

"Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been used in my family for years. I find it an excellent remedy for coughs and colds and it has helped me greatly."
—Mrs. M. Lifka, 473 Clinton Avenue, West Hoboken, N. J.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Helps keep the body in good general health because it is a predigested liquid food requiring little effort of the digestive organs, palatable and of pleasing odor, it is acceptable to the most delicate stomach when other foods are rejected. Taken as directed, it aids digestion, helps repair wasted tissues of the body, and adds to the power of endurance. That's why it invariably gives the system power to throw off and resist severe coughs, colds, grip, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles.

Here is Fred Fulton, the Rochester, Minn., heavyweight, who has signed for three fights in New York City with the intention of thus compelling Jess Willard to take him on for the championship. He looks like a champion. He is six feet four inches tall, weighs 218 pounds and has the longest reach known to the prize ring. He is built like Bob Fitzsimmons. He is going to box Al Reich, who also looks like a champion. "I'd like to manage Fulton," said Kid McCoy. "He looks good." The famous Kid called attention to the fact that Fulton is being taught the crouch which Tommy Ry-

Detroiters Land on Weillman and Cop 7 to 2; Faber Hit Hard But Hose Are Victors

CLEVELAND, April 28.—Chicago bunched its hits off Mitchell on Wednesday and won, 5 to 3. Faber was hit hard, but his support saved him from being scored on until the sixth, when Cleveland made its three runs on a hit, two passes, an error, and a sacrifice fly. Faber again wavered in the eighth but Russell came to the rescue and stopped a rally. CARTER CHOSEN SPORT DIRECTOR FOR MINE SCHOOL

Fred Carter, former athletic coach in both the La Crosse normal and the La Crosse high school, has been elected to the position of director of athletics in the State College of Mines in Colorado. Although Mr. Carter is young for the position and has never been on the coaching staff of any university, he was selected among a host of thirty or more candidates who were backed by many years of coaching experience. The appointment of the Wisconsin man came as a complete surprise to his friends. He will begin his new duties on September 1. He will have direct charge of all branches of athletics in the Golden institution and several assistants will be hired to aid him. The position carries with it a salary of $1,800 exclusive of all fees which the director secures for his coaching of the various athletic teams.

BADGERS EXPECTED TO CUT FIGURE IN GREAT PENN MEET

Mucks and Nicholson Rated High in Carnival Opening Today; Relayers Are Thought Well of

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 28.—One of the greatest athletic meets in America's history will open on Franklin field this afternoon. The two day relay carnival of the University of Pennsylvania in which nearly 2,500 collegiate and scholastic athletes are entered, among them the best of the east and west is expected to result in broken world's records. Chief interest in today's program centers in the Pentathlon which will embrace the running broad jump, javelin and discus throws and the 200 yard and 1,500 meter runs. Barry of Pennsylvania, last year's champion of the Pentathlon, is the favorite, although he is expected to be closely pressed for honors by Worthington of Dartmouth. Other stars who are expected to figure prominently are Arlie Mucks of Wisconsin; Butler of Dubuque; McCormick of Cornell, and Brown, of Yale. The sprint and distance medley race championships will also hold a large share of attention this afternoon. The western teams are favorites for both events, but some dopsters pick Pennsylvania and Cornell to win. Pentathlon at 2:45 The first event on today's program is the running broad jump, part of the Pentathlon, scheduled for 2:45 p. m. It will be followed by weight throwing and the hop, step and jump. The medley relays will be the last event of the day following the hurdle races in which Nicholson of Wisconsin is favorite, and the scholastic relays. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 28.—Two hundred and fifty athletes, representing the best men American universities and colleges possess will struggle on Franklin Field this afternoon in the preliminary heats of the University of Pennsylvania two-day relay carnival. Those who qualify will compete in the finals tomorrow. While the various teams will endeavor to win the point trophy for their individual alma mater the struggle primarily will be a gigantic battle for supremacy between east and west. Never in the history of the Penn relay classic has such a group of athletes been gathered as today. This is partly due to the European war, which caused abandonment of the Olympic games. Altogether there are 50 colleges competing with a representation of over 100 teams. The colleges entered in the championships are: Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Dartmouth, Michigan, Chicago, Illinois, Pennsylvania, University of Missouri, University of Wisconsin, Notre Dame, Kansas, Indiana, Occidental college, Brigham university, Iowa state, Georgetown, Columbia, Syracuse, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Hamline college, Michigan Agricultural, Holy Cross and Pennsylvania State. With these colleges represented by such stars as Meredith of Penn, Diamond of Chicago, Wilcox of Harvard and Moore of Princeton, there is

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

It seems like old times to see the Cubs in second place. Tinker's crew have now won six games in a row. And Mordecai Brown is waiting for Christy Mathewson and the New York Giants. Jack Graney of the Indians got three hits again yesterday. This will never do. He'll be passing Tris Speaker at that rate. One of those "almost" fights made things hum when Empire Bill Klem and Muggsy McGraw exchanged hard looks in the fourth inning at Boston. The Giants' percentage looks small beside the height of the Woolworth building. Benny Kauff's batting average yesterday—.000. The Cubs made ten of their twelve hits in two innings. The Tigers routed an old jinx when they drove Weillman of the Browns from the slab yesterday. The Senators reversed on the Athletics yesterday, winning 4 to 2. The White Sox took the Indians into camp finally. Fournier's swat club put the jinx on the Indians and the Sox had no trouble winning, 5 to 3.

more than a chance that new world records will be established. Pennsylvania, however is figured in some quarters to repeat, but while the Quakers retain Ted Meredith, Kaufman and Lickwood experts point out that the loss of Won Lippincott, one of the fastest quarter-milers in the country, will greatly reduce the Red and Blue's chance for success. Princeton, Chicago, Dartmouth, Kansas and Wisconsin also are entered in the mile relay and are classed as dark horses. From the way the runners shaped up during the spring it looks as though Yale should have a good chance to slice something off Princeton's figures for the two-mile event. The Tigers' record, established last year, is 7 minutes, 55 3-5 seconds. Cornell's team may cause Yale and Princeton no little trouble. The dark horses in the event are considered to be Michigan, Kansas and Pennsylvania. In the four-mile relay, Cornell is expected to repeat her performance of 1911, when the Ithicans walked away with the event to the tune of 17 minutes, 55 1-5 seconds, establishing the present record. Three of the men Cornell has entered are Windnagle, Potter and Hoffmire. All can run the mile in 4 minutes, 25 seconds. I. A. C. - Clarinet duet—Prof. Liddle and Van Die Bie.
- Vocal solo—Mr. Donald Jonson.
- Reading—Mrs. William Stevenson.
- Vocal solo—Miss Ida Aiken.
- Piano solo—Mr. Donald Jonson.

Mrs. Anderson Passes
Mrs. James Anderson died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Munson of this city, Good Friday, after suffering with consumption for about two years. She leaves a husband and an infant child, besides her parents, brothers and sisters.

The funeral was held from the John Munson home Monday afternoon at 2:30, with Rev. Vik and A. E. Smith in charge. Interment took place in the Holmen cemetery.

Hurt by Baseball
Mrs. Alice Atwater met with a serious accident Wednesday afternoon while on her way downtown. She was passing the high school building and some of the boys who were playing ball, threw the ball, but it accidentally struck Mrs. Atwater in the face. The blow made her unconscious for some time. Dr. Lester was called and as soon as she was able to be removed she was taken to the home of her daughter, where she is now resting fairly well.

Rummage Sale
The rummage sale held at the Woodman hall Wednesday was a success in every way. Proceeds will go toward the church basement.

Local and Personal
Mrs. Erwin Comeau left Wednesday for Ontario, where she will visit her brother for a few days.

Mrs. Howard Kinney and infant daughter returned to their home at Campbell Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Kinney accompanied them and will remain there for some time.

PERKINS SATISFIED
CHICAGO, April 27.—George W. Perkins, chairman of the executive committee of the progressive party, left for New York yesterday afternoon satisfied that Colonel Roosevelt's stock in the west is booming.
Perkins said all arrangements for the progressive convention to be held here June 7 had been completed.

Heed the Voice Within.
Why should we ever go abroad, even across the way, to ask a neighbor's advice? There is a nearer neighbor within us, incessantly telling us how we should behave. But we wait for the neighbor without to tell us of some false, easier way.—Thoreau.

WELL KNOWN WOMAN OF TREMPPEALEAU DIES AT MELROSE

TREMPPEALEAU, Wis., April 28.—Mrs. Johanna Kiesling, mother of Fred and Edward Shuman, died on Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Shepke of Melrose. The remains were brought to the home of Fred Shuman and funeral services were held Tuesday, Rev. Wilkenson of the Congregational church in Trempealeau, officiating. Interment was made in the Trempealeau cemetery.

HEALING HELPS FOR AILING SKIN

Poslam and Poslam Soap Improve Any Diseased Condition.

LOOKOUT FOR YOUR SKIN

Poslam and Poslam Soap stand for perfect skin health, and confer their benefits daily upon thousands who might otherwise suffer not only extreme physical distress but the greatest embarrassment through the presence of skin disfigurements.

Poslam, the remedy, is designed solely to soothe, control and eradicate all eruptions including Eczema, even when most aggravated, persistent and stubborn. Its ability to do so is apparent in the progressive work of healing visible after every application. Poslam Soap is non-irritating, pure, luxurious, beneficial.

TO DETERMINE IF TEETH KILLED MAN

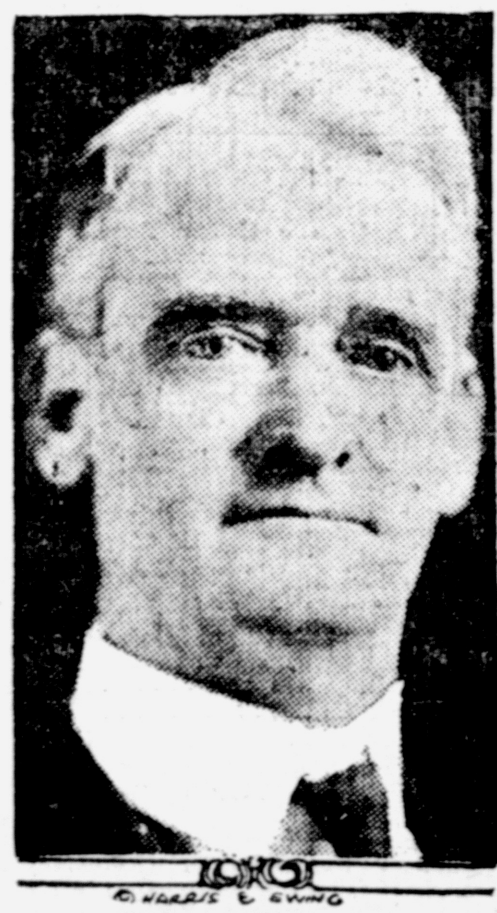

WINNIPEG, Man., April 28.—Whether F. T. Morgan bit himself to death is to be determined by a royal commission here today. Morgan, a trooper, lay in barracks with his mouth open, a soldier near him suddenly sounded a bugle. Morgan jumped, his false teeth fell into his throat, snapped together and severed tissues which later caused his death.

Had a touch of the "fishing fever" yet?

YOUTH IN OLD AGE

How to Live to be One Hundred Years Old.
With proper attention to diet, prevention of colds, exercise, plenty of sleep, proper care of the skin and the use of a strengthening tonic like Vinol, years may be added to one's life.
A Civil War Veteran, Mr. W. H. Bowers, of Steubenville, Ohio, says: "I am 77 years of age. I suffered from general weakness, nervous breakdown and dizziness. An old doctor recommended Vinol. It built me up so that I was able to go to work as strong and well as ever."
The reason Vinol is so beneficial to old people is because it contains the very elements needed to replace declining strength with renewed vigor, viz.—the medicinal elements of fresh cod livers, without oil, peptonate of iron, beef peptone and a mild tonic wine.
If Vinol fails to build up the feeble weakened system of old people, we will return the amount of money paid us for it.

BULL MOOSER IN THE LOWER HOUSE

Whitnell P. Martin.

Whitnell P. Martin, of the third Louisiana district, is one of the seven Progressives in the house of representatives and the first non-Democratic congressman from Louisiana in over twenty-five years. He was an alternate to the Democratic convention in 1912, but in the last congressional election bolted the party because of the sugar issue and defeated his Democratic opponent by 1,425 votes. He was formerly a district judge.

KELLY BONDSMEN EXAMINED

WINNIPEG, Man., April 28.—Persons offering themselves for bondsmen for Thomas Kelly, held at Chicago, on charges of graft in provincial building construction, were today searchingly examined. The bonds would only start arbitration of the civil courts against Kelly, the criminal action to be continued.

REFER "CLOSED SHOP" BACK

NEW YORK, April 28.—After a conference of an hour and a half the committees representing anthracite mine operators and mine workers yesterday decided to refer back to the sub-committee the disagreement regarding the "closed shop". Representatives of the miners expressed confidence that the whole disagreement arising out of the miners' demands, will be amicably settled before the mine workers' convention in Pottsville, May 2.

Indoor Life Makes Fat

Try Oil of Korein to Keep Weight Down, or to Reduce Superfluous Fat

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh, invigorating air and exercise must take precaution to guard against over-stoutness, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body. Lack of exercise in the fresh air is said to weaken the oxygen carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to produce strong muscles and vitality and the formation of unsightly and unhealthy fat is the result.

If you are 15 or 20 pounds above normal weight you are daily drawing on your reserve strength and are constantly lowering your vitality by carrying this excess burden. Any persons who are satisfied in their own mind that they are too stout are advised to go to City Book and Drug store, 500 Main street, Columbian Pharmacy, 123 South Fourth street, and get a box of oil of korein capsules, and take one after each meal and one just before retiring at night.
Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, improved digestion and a return of the old energy; footsteps become lighter and the skin less flabby in appearance as superfluous fat disappears.
Oil of korein is inexpensive, cannot injure, and helps the digestion. Any person who wants to reduce 15 or 20 pounds is advised to give this treatment a trial.

WHY WAIT for HOT WATER

THE expensive nuisance of delaying your work to heat water must stop. It will, if you use a Gas Water Heater. Water circulating through the copper coils of the heater is subjected to an intense, concentrated heat. No work—simply light the gas. This method means easier kitchen work, easier wash days, ready baths, cooler, cleaner kitchens and greater economy. With a
